

Methodists Meet Baptists Monday in Crucial Game

Co-Leaders of Church League Clash; Salem Plays St. Anne

A game that may go far toward deciding this season's church league basketball champion will be played at the high school gym Monday night when the Methodists and Baptists hook up in the second game of the evening.

The Baptists and Methodists are at present tied for first place and winner of Monday's game will take unchanged leadership with a good chance of continuing through and coping the title. Salem and St. Anne will tangle in the first tilt.

Last Monday's contest, which concluded the first round of play ended in victory for St. Paul and Methodists. St. Paul beat Salem, 19 to 15, in a tight defensive game, and the Methodists won from St. Anne, 31 to 17, after a close first half.

It also was stated that beginning today there will be reductions on person-to-person long distance calls every night after seven o'clock and all day Sunday. Hereafter there will be no reduced rate periods for person-to-person calls.

The new Sunday rates will be the same as the night rates. These reductions apply to nearly all calls on which the day station-to-station rate is more than 35 cents. The reductions on station-to-station calls range from about 10 per cent on some of the shorter calls to 40 per cent or more on distant calls.

Evening and Sunday person-to-person calls are now reduced about the same amount in money as station-to-station reductions between the same places.—Adv.
