NRA Failed, But Education Will Succeed—Hecht

Speaker at Lions Club Tells Problems of Recovery Administration

Education and persuasion will accomplish the task of obtaining fair trade practices among business of the country in which the NRA failed, Pfank Hecht, guest speaker at the Barrington Lions club Monday night, predicted.

Mr. Hecht served in the national recovery administration in Washington for 14 months. He reported that he was not fully in sympathy with it and regarded it as an almost complete failure, but recognized that some of the objectives are desirable and will be attained eventually through education.

Booster Club to Present Second Annual WLS Show

In addition to her, appearing on the program will be "Tom the Hobber", a turkey that started his theatrical career in Barrington last year, in company with the Rainey Boys. Benjamin Clinge will appear as Uncle Ezra, Clarence Abright will imitate the humor of Sparrerbis and E. W. Bhade is playing the Lazy Farmer. The German Band, B. Oimied, C. Khner, H. Frye, W. Mountain, R. Bhade, W. Saul, and Paul Pohlman Jr., will provide a comedy.

More than 20 Barrington women are employed at the Webster Dress shop now operation in the Landwehr building, East Main street. A few apprentices have been added from time to time. This plan probably will be continued. Machines have been installed on the second floor, and the north half of the ground floor is being prepared for additional shop work.

Attends Meeting Cornelia C. Snyder, local acting postmaster, attended a meeting of the Federal Business Men's association at the Atlantic hotel in Chicago Wednesday. Col. W. W. Edwards was the principal speaker of the occasion.

Wisdom A Down East fisherman developed wisdom from a lot of negations when he remarked: "Nobody never got in no trouble by not sayin' nothin'!"

Service Men May Apply for Bonus at Post Meeting

Local Legionnaires are taking an active interest in the bonus bill which has passed both houses and senate by such overwhelming majorities that it is certain to override the expected presidential veto.

The Illinois department of the American Legion, anticipating the need of many veterans for assistance in applying for their adjusted certificate payment, has completed arrangements to distribute the necessary application forms through the local posts.

MILLER BROS. FUN & FACTS

WOL. 7 Barrington, Ill., Thursday, January 23, 1936 NO. 5

Well, we're convinced we like summer better than winter. "She wasn't a peach, she was a grapefruit!" "How's Zai?" "I squeaked her and she bit me in the eye."

One Barrington lady says she has a terrible time between her husband and her furnace. Every time she watches one of the other goes out. A McValine Oil Burner will solve this problem these cold days.

We like to think of this business of ours as an essential part of the community, and are doing our best to make it so. Come and see us. Let's get acquainted—we need you in our business.
