

B. H. S. Cagers Face Hardest Test - Clash With Conference Leaders

Bronchos Battle Wildcat Quint at Libertyville Friday

Wildcats Undefeated; Bronchos Whip Antioch, 39 to 29, Ponies Triumph

The basketball team of Barrington High school face their toughest test of the season, Friday afternoon, when they travel to Libertyville to meet the undefeated L. T. M. Wildcats, leaders of the Northwest conference heavyweight basketball and six straight victories last season to cap the 1935-36 season.

The game assumes major importance to the Bronchos as right now they are in the fight with a record of five wins and one defeat, and could jump into first place by upsetting the Wildcats Friday. A defeat would mean they would be out of the conference.

Libertyville Strong
The game was set safely by Barrington's powerful Libertyville team, which is expected to sweep the conference. Coach Jack Martin has arranged team with both boys and girls.
