Col. A. V. Smith, Prominent Man in Lake County, Dies

Colonel A. V. Smith, prominent figure in Lake county politics and member of the Lake county Bar association, died suddenly Saturday night of a heart attack at the Victory Memorial hospital.

Colonel Smith served three times as state's attorney in Lake county and was president of the World war and the 1916 expedition into Mexico.

He was first elected to office in 1920. He attained prominence in the prosecution of Leo Small, former governor, in a fraud charge case.

Small was acquitted, but Smith later produced evidence for investigation on jury tampering charge. He ran for the office of representative in the Tenth congressional district but was defeated.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in Waukegan with full military honors. He is survived by his widow, Belle, his mother, Mrs. W. B. Smith, and a sister, Mrs. Cyrus Blodgett.
