Three Garden Clubs Plan Exhibits for Flower Show at Navy Pier Mar. 20-29

Members of three local garden clubs have been dashing into Chicago this week, completing plans for their entries to the tenth annual Chicago Flower show, to be presented at Navy Pier March 20 to 29.

About 75 clubs throughout the city will have floral arrangements, still life pictures, pairs of vases, wall brackets, and other decorative items. There will be formal dinner tables and terrace woods and a still life picture of fruit.

The Garden club of Barrington will present a terrace with table arrangements in the table, arranged by Mrs. Samuel Randolph Payson at his major estate. A still life picture of fruit will be assembled by Mrs. Fred Howard as another contribution of the group.

As beside window box is being arranged by members of the Jean's Garden Club of Barrington. Mrs. Lester Higgins and Mrs. A. Crook are preparing a Victorian flower arrangement and a still life picture as exhibits representing the Country Garden Club.

Heading the local ticket committee are Mrs. Richmond Keyton and Mrs. Warren McCracken. Tickets will be available also at Mrs. Crook's according to the advertisement in The Review this week.

The central motif of the Flower Show this year will be small garden boxes—frontier gardens, estate gardens, suburban gardens, city gardens, entrance courts, dower gardens, terrace gardens, and gardens of special interest—kitchen gardens, and pickering areas, greenhouses, even inside and outside window boxes, and wall gardens.

Besides these gardens there will be all manner of floral arrangements, still life pictures, pairs of vases, wall brackets, and other decorative items. There will be formal dinner tables and terrace woods and a still life picture of fruit.

The entrance, which is always the project of the Garden Club of Illinois, will be a reproduction of a bit of the more rugged Illinois scenery, and will be by the far the most spectacular yet attempted.
