Charles N. Glover Named Assistant for Farm Bureau

At a special meeting of the Cook county Farm Bureau board Monday, Charles N. Glover of Chicago Heights was elected to fill the position of assistant to Farm Adviser O. G. Barrett for the coming year.

Glover was born and reared on a farm in Putnam county. He is a graduate of John Swain high school and the University of Illinois at Urbana, having a bachelor of science degree in agriculture. With the exception of one year when he taught school, he has worked for R. W. Bill, state leader of barberry eradication since graduation.

100 Attend Meeting of Lake County Young Republicans Thursday

Nearly 100 local persons and their guests from other parts of Lake county attended the Young Republican club meeting held at 100 North Cook street last Thursday evening.

In the absence of Richard Lyons of Libertyville, scheduled as the principal speaker for the evening, T. E. Davis of Barrington gave the keynote speech of the evening, urging support of C. W. Landrum and others who were active party campaigners two years ago when the democratic administration was at the apex of its popularity. He also urged voters to support the old D. Kehey, popular Barrington candidate for nomination for the office of coroner.

Many of the republican candidates for Lake county offices were present at the meeting and were introduced to the guests. Mr. Kelly presided.

District Executive Scout Council Has Important Meeting

Members of the executive committee met at 263 S. Cook street at a regular monthly meeting Friday evening. Reports from committees were brought before the group and different phases of activity were discussed.

The cubbing council will meet April 20 at Pohlman's drug store to arrange for transfers and increases in membership. A report was made by Clayton Watkins on senior scouting. At present there are six boys meeting Wednesday nights at the Jewel Tea building.

Howard Brintlinger, chairman of the reading committee, prepared a list of nine books to be read to be kept at the public library. Presentation of the scout charter is to be made Friday, April 24, at the scout cabin. The evening has been designated as parents' night. The last Friday night in each month was selected for parents to attend meetings. On April 24 a program consisting of the elements of scoutmastering, cubbing work, senior program and first aid and archery classes will be presented.

Plans for a Barrington district scouting school are being prepared. Fundamentals of scouting is to be the subject and April 15 has been selected as the first meeting at the scout cabin.

The problem of needing additional scoutmastering work was brought up. Troop 10 needs a member in the troop committee while troop 29 lacks an assistant scoutmaster. The court of honor will be held March 18 at the scout cabin with troop 10 acting as host.

Dramatic Club to Give Annual Play Friday, Saturday

The Dramatic Club of Barrington high school will present its annual play in the school auditorium Friday and Saturday evenings, March 13 and 14. The play selected for this year is "Big Hearted Herbert" and is being directed by Miss Ethel Schwab of the local faculty.

The play is a three-act comedy built around the life of an average American man who is unaccountably playing the part of a tyrant to his own family. Herbert Helms, played by Kenneth Frye, is a self-made man who attempts to run his children and home in his own fashion, disregarding any ideas of the others.

The cast is listed as follows: Kenneth Frye, Herbert Helms; Vernel Jeppsen, Robert Kalnes; Dawn Landwer, Elizabeth Kalnes; Anna Marie Friend, Martha; Richard Watson, Herbert Kalnes Jr.; Mae Elters, Allice Kalnes; William Tiehy, Andrew Goodrich; Betty Schroeder, Amy Lawrence; Jack Fletcher, Jim Lawrence; Alfred Castle, Mr. Goodrich; Marjorie Kemper, Mrs. Goodrich; George Bjornberg, Mr. Havens; Frances Bennett, Mrs. Havens.

Patriotic Program Is Presented by W.R.C. at Meeting Tuesday

Members of the W.R.C. gathered at the Masonic temple Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 for dessert luncheon followed by a business meeting and social hour. As there had been no February meeting owing to unfavorable weather, the business meeting lasted until 6 o'clock. It was followed by a program, arranged by the patriotic instructor, which included the following numbers: two selections, sung by a quartet including Mrs. John Cadwallader, Mrs. Dan Pomeroi, Mrs. V. D. Hawley, and Mrs. Walter Cannon; a talk on patriotism by Mrs. Charles Drumm; a play in which Betty Plager, Norren Bertram and Kenneth Frye, took part. A meeting of officers of the W.R.C. will be held at the home of Mrs. Louis Thacher Tuesday, March 31.
