Local Red Cross Appeals for Flood

A. H. Suss Heads Seeking Volun Offerings

In conjunction with an appeal for financial efforts in the flood zone in many states, the American Red Cross is appealing for contributions. The appeal is being carried on under the leadership of A. H. Suss, chairman of the fund-raising committee of the local district.

Since word was received last Saturday that $132 had been raised by the local district, Suss made a trip to the Suss Hardware store at Galena.

Announcements were made at the meeting of the respective churchmen and other groups. No quota is being set for the Chicago council the quota is $225,000.

Local Tea company a contribution list and employees are making other donations.

In January the local board was established. It was called by Hugh C. Suss, chairman of the board at that time. Suss and other committee members were listed as follows:

The purpose of the fund-raising is to help the promotion of the relief work of the Red Cross. The money raised by the committee will be used to help the victims of the floods suffered by the people of the flood area and property of the past few weeks.

Raymond Treutik Fractures Right Leg in Accident

Raymond Treutik, son of Frank and Mrs. Frank Treutik, 301 W. Main street, suffered a compound fracture of his right leg when he fell from a motorcycle he was riding on an automobile accident on Saturday afternoon. Thomas Jacks, News-Gazette reporter, who was on duty at the hospital in Elgin, where he was treated, reported that Treutik was on his way to work when he made a left turn at Fifth street and was struck by a car. Treutik was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Elgin, where he was treated. Treutik's leg was fractured in three places.

State highway policeman H. G. Glickner, investigating the accident and found that Jacks started the turn to the left and was struck by the car. Treutik was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Elgin, where he was treated. Treutik's leg was fractured in three places.
