Strand Dress Co. Completes Job of Moving Plant Here

Factory Has 50 Employees

Now: Will Add More Later

Strand Dress Co., 232 E. Main street, formerly of Chicago, has completed the moving and installation of machinery and will begin to operate at full capacity this week. Approximately 50 employees are now engaged in various phases of garment manufacturing within the next month according to officials.

An instructor is engaged and will give instructions to all new employees. Positions will be open to many Barrington residents a short time later.

Every step of work in turning out completed garments is done in the plant. The raw materials are sent through the cutting, sewing, and other steps by operators of different machines.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Calkins and son, 725 Summit street, returned this week from a vacation of two months spent in touring the western and southwestern parts of the country. During their many travels they covered 9,000 miles and visited many of the historical and interesting localities.

Included in their itinerary were the Gulf of Mexico at Galveston, Tex., Carlsbad caverns in New Mexico and a short trip into Mexico. Crossing the mountains in Arizona between Globe and Phoenix, they traversed a spot known as the "top of the world," and also took an inspection tour of the Colville dam.

Orange grove of Arizona and California held their interest as the family returned. The Barrington folks also inspected the great suspension bridge being erected between Oakland and San Francisco, Calif.

Taking a route northward they traveled up the Pacific coast from Los Angeles to Portland Ore., and Seattle, Wash., through a section of country containing some of the redwood trees of California. Heights of 9,000 feet were reached on some mountains.

They visited the navy yard at Bremerton across the sound from Seattle where the U.S.S. Virginia was in dry dock. They spent two weeks with Mrs. Calkins' sister, Mrs. Charles S. Brown, at Kirkland, Wash. They also visited Mrs. Kate E. Miller and her two sons, Houghton and Harry, at Seattle, Wash., several days.

Also the Millers are former residents of Barrington.

The homeward journey included a stop at the Grand Hotel, a Petrified Forest and Painted Desert, all in Arizona.

Approximately 250 men of Barrington registered for employment on the sewer project which is about to be started. Representatives from the Illinois employment service were in Barrington Monday until Wednesday for the purpose of registering men.

The figure of 250 is based on registrations here and that there had previously been made at other offices.

With the continuation of fair weather it is expected that construction work will start in the near future. Engineers have been surveying the Liberty street site of the railroad track. Stakes for digging work have been set out. The present plan of the contractor is to work from the treatment plant to the sources of the sewer line.

The prospect of continuous employment in Barrington for many men is strengthened by a request made to John H. Blanke, WPA project supervisor. He was asked by WPA officials to prepare an amended schedule of work on the water pipe extension project up to July. He was also asked to prepare reports on the starting of the water pipe project. The water pipe project has been moving ahead and crews are now working on James street.

Find Out

From Your Doctor if the "Pain" Remedy You Take is Safe

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with Genuine Bayer Aspirin.

We say this because, before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin, most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of Bayer Aspirin largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken Bayer Aspirin year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: Genuine Bayer Aspirin is rated among the safest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

You can get real Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by seeing asking for it by the name "aspirin" alone, but always saying BAYER ASPIRIN when you buy.

"Anything Goes" Stars Crosby and Merman at Catlow

"The Great Impersonation" Is Mystery Play Featuring
Edmund Lowe

True friendship that proves itself under a ball of fire and in the face of adversity is the theme of the colorful and exciting "Professional Soldier," which closes tonight at the Catlow theatre, presenting Victor McLaglen and Fredric March in their first starring roles.

With a fascinating yarn for its basis, this grand adventure picture tells the amazing story of a little thing and a blustering soldier of fortune who become pals in peril.

Edmund Lowe is the old master mystery writer and "The Great Impersonation" is his masterpiece. The famous author revealed this fact when Universal was negotiating with him for the rights to his celebrated story, which comes Friday, with Edmund Lowe starring in the dual title role.

"Professional Soldier" is his masterpiece. The famous author revealed this fact when Universal was negotiating with him for the rights to his celebrated story, which comes Friday, with Edmund Lowe starring in the dual title role.

"Parade of 'You're the Top'"—the song that made America "top" conscious, enlivens the presentation of "Anything Goes," which comes Sunday and Monday.

This comedy created a sensation on the New York stage during its long run there. Bing Crosby, who heads the cast, exchanges repartees with Ethel Merman. Everything from a Gerabain ditty to the great Chinese wall is invoked to bring out the lighter side of "You're the Top" theme.

Others in the cast are Charley Hootes, Ida Lupino, and Grace Bradley.

Blanche Whitney and Tom Ricketts head the cast of players in "Timothy's Quest," Paramount's adaptation of Kate Douglas Wiggin's well-known novel which comes Tuesday.

Dickie Moore, Virginia Welder, Sissy Martin and Bonnie Bartlett comprise the quartet of children who stir up excitement and trouble.

Weather Conditions Are Responsible for Drop in February Building Trade

The very nature of the month of February as far as weather conditions is a foregone conclusion that building activity in Barrington and the suburban area around Chicago would take a large drop in Barrington, as in the previous two months, no permits were issued by Herman Garbisch, building commissioner, for new structures or remodeling work.

Permits failed to reach the million dollar-a-month mark by a large margin in the suburban area.

Barrington enjoyed a sustained movement of new building activity during 1935 but climatic conditions of January and February prevented an early start this year.

Despite conditions, an increase of $200,000 was noted in the suburban area over February of 1935. The figures to be compared are $511,290 for February, 1935, and $296,940 for February, 1936.

Two future Barringtonites arrived just too late to be announced last week—little Jean Corbett and Paul Draper.

Paul was born a week ago Tuesday, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Draper, while Jean arrived Wednesday and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Corbett. Both babies and their mothers are at the Evanston hospital and are doing nicely.

Renault Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Potter Smith, was greatly honored Saturday afternoon, when she walked away with both first and grand prize at a Bach recital and contest. Some 30 children competed, all pupils of Mrs.

L. T. York, and the recital was given at the Baptist church.

A larger number than usual enjoyed luncheon at the club Saturday. The spring weather is evidently renewing the feeling for Country Club activities.

The Samuel Hovey attended a St. Patrick's party at the Tavern club Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCracken gave a dinner party Saturday night.

Mrs. Sanford B. White entertains the Kaffee Klatch this week. Mrs. Florence Cadwallader was guest of the H. C. Cheneys last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hestler left Saturday for a two weeks' motor trip which will take them through South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and up through Washington on the way home.

Miss Jean White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford White, will spend her vacation from Kemper hall with her family while her elder, Priscilla, will be the guest of Caroline Collier at Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Potter Smith entertained at dinner Monday night and also had a group in to luncheon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred K. Eddy were Sunday guests of the Hoveys. They are hoping to find a house in the Barrington district.

Mrs. Carl Dautel and infant daughter, Katharine, came home from Evanston hospital Wednesday.

Set Hearing Date on Condemnation for Sewer

A defendant in the condemnation proceedings.
He objected to the dumping plan on the ground that it would lower realty values and affect future property sales by having "fowage rights" attached to the title.

He stated that if the effluent were released in Filist creek at the treatment plant all property would be affected to an equal degree.

Village Attorney Maloney reviewed the steps leading up to the plan as adopted. He stated that the topographical nature of Filist creek made the change necessary. Due to the fact that water would "pond" at points above the Northwest highway, the village would face possibility of litigation for many years if the effluent and storm waters flowed into the creek at the same place.

By segregating the two, he stated, those below Northwest highway would benefit from a clear effluent which would be under surveillance of the state sanitary water board. The check maintained by that body, Mr. Maloney stated, would insure proper forcing the village to keep close check on the operations of the treatment plant.

The cost of the outfall sewer was estimated at $36,000. In reaching a decision to install the pipe line, village trustees compared the cost of condemnation, expense litigation and better received by the village. Their final decision was based on the fact that cost of both plans were nearly the same but the construction of the outfall line was more desirable.

ON CENSORING SOURCES OF NEWS

In knocking out the Louisiana newspaper tax law the United States supreme court held the state statute to be "a deliberate and calculated device in the guise of a tax to limit the circulation of information to which the public is entitled in virtue of the constitutional guaranties." The court further held: "A free press stands as one of the great interpreters between the government and the people. To allow it to be fettered is to fetter ourselves."

The radio, like the press, is an "interpreter between the government and the people." The decision in the Louisiana newspaper case may yet be cited by the supreme court when it some day is asked to pass on the right of the government to censor political radio broadcasts.

WHAT'S GOING ON

Small retail dealers in large numbers descend on Washington to urge the passage of law aimed at their chain store rivals.

The measure, sponsored by Senator Robinson and Representative Patman, forbids discounts, rebates, allowances and advertising service charges to any one purchaser over those available to competitors. Buyers' cooperative associations would be exempt from the law.

Advocates of the bill note with satisfaction a federal trade commission order which compels the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company to terminate a contract with Sears-Roebuck. As a result of the contract Goodyear tires, under a special name, could be sold by the merchandising firm much more cheaply than by small dealers.

Chain stores, contending against strong congressional sentiment, point out that they are aiding the consumer, bringing him the benefit of large-scale efficiency impossible to small dealers. Consumers, as usual, are silent.

The battle of the codes is fought before the supreme court but on a different terrain. At issue this time is the code set up for the soft coal industry by the Cuffy Coal act. Congress has defined the terms of the code and seeks to enforce it by a tax, partially omitted for complying corporations.

The NRA codes, struck down last May 27, were made by executive action and were enforced by police power.

Prime issue in both cases is the extent of congressional power over operations affecting interstate commerce. The government having failed in the first case to prove to the court's satisfaction that poultry packing directly affects interstate commerce, it tempts now to show that coal mining presents a different picture. It warns that, if legal authority is lacking, military authority may be required to fill the gap.

Seven coal states enter the contest, arguing that the coal industry, national in scope, is beyond their powers to regulate for its advantage within their borders. They urge that congress be given jurisdiction.

Coal companies opposing the law take their stand on the NRA decision, which they quote to show mining is a matter for the states to deal with. Least of all, they say, may congress prescribe rules for collective bargaining.

What happens when a senate committee and the court, each armed with its marshall, come into direct conflict?

This query provides the point in an unfolding drama growing out of the senate's lobby investigation.

Caught between the two authorities is the Western Union Telephone company.

Called to testify at hearings, Mr. Jones sought to withdraw the registration. The commission, refusing permission, obtained a court order requiring his attendance. Appealing, Mr. Jones carries the case to the supreme court.

There the SEC's authority is challenged on many grounds. Continued on page 8
