

Three Local Dog Fanciers Enter Show This Week

Mrs. T. Moroney, O. Caesar and A. Stewart Have Placed Entries

Dog fanciers from every section of the county will play an important part in the 35th annual all breed dog show of the Chicago Kennel club, which is held in the Coliseum Friday, Saturday and Sunday. According to Alexander H. Stewart, club president and president of the show, approximately 1,000 dogs of a wide variety of breeds have been entered. Entries from Barrington include O. Caesar, who will show an English pointer. Mrs. T. Moroney, of Hammond avenue, will show a black puppy in the open class. Her kennel, Mr. Stewart, also showing wire haired pointers in the novice, open and puppy classes. The exhibition of T. Howell, now the championship Labrador retriever in this show marks several ribbons to Barrington. The dogs have already won championship points in several shows and will undoubtedly repeat this year.

The major award of the show is the Best of Show trophy, valued at $100.00, for the best dog of the breed.

There are 41 dog owners in the Chicago metropolitan area and the show in the city are many of the dog fanciers with prize and money. Francis Hogan, trainer of the Martin Hogan, holder of 11 well kennels, will show a retriever, both Golden and Labrador, from the H. R. Ward kennel of Mound, Minn., where he has been the trainer.

stores quintet ended the season standing. Earlier in the year the local outfit dumped the Chicago boys to the tune of 27 to 22. Last year the teams split the season with one loss and one win in their two game series.

Absence of Mandy, who was benched with an injured leg, proved to be the weakpoint in the local line. Hitman turned in his usual dependable game, scoring four buckets and four charity markers. Rousch led the Chicago outfit with Jamison, Barrington and Ducharm getting their share of points. With the exception of Williams, all the Jewel boys from Barrington broke into the scoring column.

St. Anne's Church Will Hold Boxing Matches April 22

St. Anne church will sponsor its second all star CYO boxing and wrestling show at the public school gymnasium April 22. This year's card will feature 8 3-round bouts of boxing. Wrestling matches will also be carded. It is the hope of the committee to arrange additional features to be announced at a later date.

Those who attended last year's fight held in the North side will remember the well-balanced card presented that night. The boys fighting in these matches are all amateurs from Chicago and the metropolitan area. Many of the fighters have participated in the Chicago Golden Gloves and CYO tournaments.

The fights this year are being held indoors to avoid postponement due to inclement weather and also for better seating arrangements. The card of fighters will be announced in a later issue of the Barrington Review.

Ticket sales are being handled by J. J. Carroll and W. Fanning and C. Long are co-chairmen of arranging the event.

First Track Meet of Season to Be Held at Palatine Wednesday

The annual triangular track meet between Arlington Heights, Palatine and Barrington high schools at Palatine will be the starting gun when the teams meet for the first contest of the season.

DISTRICT LEAGUE

Miller Bros. team again showed its superiority Friday night by taking two games from Dulick-Pontiac, but the case of "Jitters" that has been the nemesis of L. Miller all season struck him in the last game and he went to pieces thus preventing a clean sweep of three games. Jefferson Ice cropt into a contending position for second place honors by taking two games from the Gold Star quintet.

This week's game will have an important bearing on second place when the Jefferson and Buick-Pontiac teams roll against each other.

Three more weeks of bowling remain with Miller Bros. expected to be title at eight game lead.

Athletic Awards Given at 'B' Club Dinner Thursday

"Clean living in a clean environment" was the topic hammered home in dynamic manner by Wendell Williams, University of Illinois coaching staff, when he addressed a gathering at the annual B club banquet in the Methodist church parlor Tuesday evening. Mr. Williams delivered an interesting talk on the life-long benefits derived from athletic competition by youth.

Arthur Conrad was toastmaster for the evening and introduced the speakers. Herbert Walbaum and Allen Benoit spoke to the group and told of experiences met in former years as athletes of Barrington high school. Musical numbers were led by Bayard Olmsted, and W. Mountain entertained with several pleasing vocal selections.

Presentation of awards in basketball and football was made by Paul Clark and T. C. Hioford. Those receiving minor football letters were C. Kampert, L. Canby, W. Nielsen, F. Venth, H. Elvers, G. Bjornberg, W. Tuby, L. Miller, A. Castle and J. Shepard. Minor basketball letters went to E. Glare, W. Wolfe, W. Tuby, L. Miller, H. Boerman, E. Rice, E.
