"A Midsummer Night's Dream" Coming Tuesday

Production to Be Shown Only Once at Catlow Theatre Tuesday Night

Two pictures current at the Catlow theatre have ghostly themes developed in an amusing fashion.

Robert Donat in "The Ghost Goes West" finishes his run tonight; and "Three Live Ghosts" with Richard Arlen, Beryl Mercer and Rudley Digges starred, is scheduled to play Friday night.

This latter ghost yarn tells the story of three delinquent young soldiers, who come back from the war to find themselves officially "dead".

Practically all the never-to-be-forgotten music has been retained in "The Bohemian Girl"; the Laurel and Hardy masterpiece stated for Saturday night. In none of their previous full-length features has the notable team of buffoons been afforded so many hilarious situations.

Sparkling adventure and romance are skillfully blended in "Destiny" which brings Marlene Dietrich and Gary Cooper together again for the first time since "Morocco". The plot has to do with a sensational jewel robbery committed by Miss Dietrich. "Destiny" will be screened Sunday afternoon and evening and Monday night.

The road show production of Max Reinhardt's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be presented on the Catlow screen Tuesday night.

This three-hour entertainment combines the majesty of Shakespeare, the melody of Mendelssohn and the mastery of Reinhardt. The cast of over a thousand players includes such notable names as James Cagney, Dick Powell, Joe E. Brown, Huxh Herbert, Frank McHugh and Anita Louise.

Due to the length of this production there will be but one show beginning at 9 p. m. sharp.

The Catlow theatre announces that Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, singing stars of "Naughty Marietta," will appear in their new singing picture, "Rose Marie," Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.
