Annual Lantern Festival an Old Japanese Custom

When it comes to celebrating a festival of lanterns in Japan the organizers of the feast surely believe in carrying out an old adage...

This celebration is an offshoot of an ancient Japanese custom of lighting lanterns nightly to drive away the "devil" which were believed to appear on the beach of Ishiki.

Italy Once Fashion Dictator

There was a time when Italy dictated fashions for the whole world. In the Middle Ages and, later, during the Renaissance, Italian modes of dress were widely copied.
