

Village Attorney Lists Expenses of Condemnation Suit

Final disposition of the village condemnation case for right of way along Hill creek will be decided in a short time, according to latest information. D. B. Mueser, village attorney, in a letter to Earl Hatle, village president, explained the closing of the case. This was read at the village board meeting Monday night.

The total cost of the condemnation case has been estimated at $175, although when the sub-siding of the case was first discussed, Mr. Mueser told the board that $3000 would cover everything.

The expense of property along Hill creek asked $120,000 when the suit was first disclosed. Court proceedings were instituted and a summons necessary for the village to hire witnesses as well as an expert to testify on the value of land in the community.

After three days of trial, a settlement was reached through the mediation of Mr. Hatle and Mr. Mueser. The settlement cost the village $1000 for fees and the amount paid was $3000. Other expenses of the village amounted to $1500.

In closing the case the jury asked $175 to even property along Hill creek. The agreement was made between the village and the property owners. The agreement was made between the village and the property owners. The agreement was made between the village and the property owners.

Passion Play at Zion Attracts Attention by Excellent Portrayals

Presentation of the Zion Passion play at the Shiloh Tabernacle in Zion has been attracting the attention of persons from many sections of Illinois. This play, a second annual presentation, is handled by local actors and represents various scenes from the life of Christ. Earl Paxton, a brother of Cecil Paxton of Barrington, is cast in the drama for the second year. He plays the part of Thomas, one of the 12 apostles.

The sacred drama has been changed this year to include many additional features—better staging, lighting, costuming and music. Performances will be given every Thursday and Sunday evening until May 24.

Progress of the Plow

The plow, simplest and most basic farm implement, reached excellence only after centuries of painful progress. Research by the Bureau of agricultural engineering shows that the first plow, fashioned from crooked tree branches, were pulled by one or more men, another feature—better staging, lighting, costuming and music. Performances will be given every Thursday and Sunday evening until May 24.

Willows in England

Articles made of willow, or branches of the willow tree such as baskets, furniture, hats, etc., have been used extensively in England for many hundreds of years.

Card of Thanks

"Circus of Science" Touring America

Artist's conception, drawn from photographs, of the General Motors Parade of Progress on the road. The traveling "world's fair on wheels" will bring to American communities the contributions of industry to human welfare. The giant streamlined buses are joined together on location to form continuous exhibition halls, and are built as large as practical for pre-war-day roads. When under way, with the vehicles spaced 200 feet apart for safety, the caravan is two miles long.

Tuberculosis Association at Meeting Votes More Monthly Chest Clinics

The executive committee of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association at a meeting held last week voted to conduct two chest clinics each month for the remainder of this year. Previously only one clinic has been held monthly.

These additional clinics are possible because of the increase in the Christmas seal sale for 1935 and are necessary because of the number of people requesting examinations in the last few months.

The clinics will be held at the first and third Wednesdays of the month at the St. Theresa hospital in Waukegan from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Now patients desiring examination should get in touch with the office of the association for an appointment.

Present Easter Cantata
The Rev. J. H. Ellerbrake, pastor of Hanover township Evangelical church, announced that the choir of the Harvey, Ill. church will present its Easter cantata at the Hanover church Sunday, May 3. Rev. George Ellerbrake is pastor of the Harvey church.

It is significant that another national organization, at its annual meeting in Chicago, adopted a resolution pledging its 20,000 members to use more newspaper advertising this year. This time it was the National Retailer Owner Grocers association and members will urge their customers to read newspapers in order that cooperative advertisements will be more widely read.

Periodically, other forms of advertising are tried besides newspapers. Sometimes it is direct-by-mail, circulars, handbills or catalogs; recently, it has been radio. But, one by one, the advertiser returns to the newspapers. There he finds his most effective results. Newspapers have reader interest in both its news and advertising columns. They can be digested at leisure and comparisons can be made.
