Party discussions, which were at a high level during the primary campaign, were completely wiped out before the conventions started.

$7000 Fire Destroys the Home of M. Hodgkins in Prairie View Saturday

The home of Morton Hodgkins in Prairie View was destroyed by fire Saturday when flying sparks set the roof ablaze and leveled the frame structure. The estimated damage was believed to be about $7000.

The blaze was discovered about 11 a. m. and had gained such headway that the building was doomed.

Hodgkins and his family, assisted by neighbors, managed to cart all interior furnishings from the building to safety outside.

There is no fire-fighting force within the village, so hand methods were resorted to in doing the little work that was attempted to save part of the structure.

The Long Grove fire department was called, but upon arrival found there was no water supply available. Fire chemicals, the firemen managed to save an adjoining garage and small barn.

Dog Is Master of Snell! Sight Is Not Important

It came with something of a shock to people of the Occident to discover that their personal odors made it somewhat difficult at first for the more delicately sensitized orientals to remain near them.

It is a fact, asserts a writer in the Minneapolis Journal, that every one of us, whether of the Orient or Occident, has his own aroma, as distinct and personal as his carriage or countenance. The dog recognizes his master not entirely by his appearance, but by something else peculiar to him.

A biologist, who has made something of a study of these facts, points out that we constantly exude products of metabolism and that in the composition of these products we all differ. Not only do we differ from one another, but in no individual are they impelled to confirm their vision, when they see their master, by making a searching investigation directed toward confirming their impression. Of their two senses, for complete knowledge, they prefer the sense of smell to that of sight.

Cabbage Seed Once Used as Bride's Gift to groom

Prize cabbage seed, usually easily obtained by any gardener for a modest sum, was once regarded as a treasure and changed hands only when a bride brought some of her father's stock as a wedding gift to her husband.

This usual custom was followed two weeks ago in Illinois.

When one Amarger family married into another, the bride brought with her a local strain of cabbage seed, but so Amarger farmer would ever sell seed to a foreigner, Danish tradition has it. This tradition held until 1932 when the first Amarger cabbage seed is said to have been sold.

Junior High School Will Present Two Plays on May 15

Pupils of the Junior high school will give two plays as their annual presentation at the public school auditorium, Friday night, May 15. The names of the productions are "Three Pills in a Bottle" and "Ten Minutes by the Clock." Miss M. Annette Sheel is directing rehearsal.

"Three Pills in a Bottle" is a fantasy by Rachel Field. The theme concerns a little sick boy who makes friends with passers-by. Each allows his soul to visit the child. The cast and characters are as follows: Tony Sims, Forest Shepherd; The Widow Sims, Joyce Schab; A Middle Aged Gentleman, Jack Gravelle; His Son, Norman Maxon; A Scissors Grinder, Harold Lipofsky; His Son, Roland Meisner; A Doctor, Mrs. Man, Dorothy Dobrich; Her Son, Billy Jane McCray.

"Ten Minutes by the Clock" is a brisk comedy—a satire on foolish conventions.

To sit at table with a king and queen is a great honor and a great sport it is to watch the pompous Pompon, the antics of Dax and Dox, and to hear the Gypsy's song.

The cast and characters of this humorous selection are as follows: The King, Caleb Canby; The Queen, Frieda Kohner; the Queen's Page, Betty Weber; The Queen's Lorelei, Langworthy; Pompon, Clarence Jones; Dax, Elmer; Dox, Robert Deescher; Dax, Elmer; Dox, Polly Ann Brooks; The Housemaid, Dolores Eck.
