

Fine Program for 9th Anniversary of Catlow Theatre

"The Story of Louis Pasteur," "Colleen" and Others Featured

The 9th anniversary program of the Catlow theatre offers a group of shows chosen from the season's finest. With the Dionne Quintuplets in "The Country Doctor," now playing, followed by "The Story of Louis Pasteur," "Colleen," "Boulder Dam," "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and "The Voice of the Movies" movie fans have available a succession of metropolitan hits.

The famous "Quints," with a Hollywood cast of notables, will make their appearance in "The Country Doctor," Friday night. Special interest centers in the Saturday screening of "The Story of Louis Pasteur."

This is the first time a film play has been based on the actual events in the life of a great scientist. All the rich, moving drama in which Pasteur lived is shown by a remarkable cast headed by Paul Hans. Josephine Hutchinson takes the role of Mme. Pasteur, and Anita Louise, Donald Woods and Jack Lether are seen in important parts.

Desk Powell in "Colleen" is scheduled for Sunday and Monday, but in this merry musical the spotlight does not fall on Dick Jones for Ruby Keeler and her dancing partners. Pat Draper, Jack Oakes, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert and Louise Fazenda will claim their share in this swiftly-paced comedy yarn, topped with new songs.

The construction of the huge government power project at Boulder Dam was so rich in drama and action that it could hardly help being the background of an exciting and spectacular film play.

Many of the incidents connected with the building of this project are actually incorporated in the picture, "Boulder Dam," which plays the Catlow Tuesday. Ross Alexander, Lytle Tatum and other stars appear in leading roles, with a large cast in support.

Freddie Bartholomew and Dolores Costello Barrymore are co-starring in "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which will be screened three days beginning Wednesday.

The story follows the adventures of a little American boy who becomes a nobleman and goes to England to live in a magnificent castle with his grandfather, an impossible old earl. How the little chap's love works a transformation in the great old earl is charmingly depicted.

Ancient Flowers
Many of our flowers were known to the ancients. In Egyptian tombs wreaths have been found made of lily, mignonette, cornflower, laurel, poppies, narcissus and lilies.
