Miss Philon Beuscher

Bride of Wilbur Brewer

Before an improvised altar banked with ferns and garden flowers in the living room of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Beuscher, 307 S. Monroe street, Streator, Miss Philon Beuscher became the bride of Wilbur Phillips Brewer, 510 Summit street, Barrington Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The single ring service was read by the bride's father.

Attending the couple were Miss Josephine Beuscher, sister of the bride, and Russell Brewer of Algonquin, brother of the groom.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Mr. Louis Beuscher, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her eldest brother, Louis, who gave her the marriage vows. She was lovely in a gown of white point de espi with white tulle and a long train. The bride's bouquet was fashioned of yellow and white roses. The bridesmaids wore aqua mousseline dresses and carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to 26 relatives and close friends. Later the young couple left for a motor trip in the east and after July 1 will be at home at 510 Summit street.

Mrs. Brewer is a graduate of North Central college, Naperville, and for the past five years taught commercial courses at Elia town ship high school in Lake Zurich from which position she resigned this month.

Mrs. Brewer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brewer of Algonquin where he received his education. He is proprietor of the Brewer Motor Sales, 202 S. Cook street.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Misses Louise Mayne, and Josephine Brand, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brewer and Mrs. Russell, Algonquin; Mrs. Louis Brand, Ottawa; Miss Esther Plagge and Edward Gieske, Barrington.

Is Cousin's

Attendant

Mrs. Robert Granger, 609 Grove avenue, was matron of honor at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Louise Lowry of Evanston, to James Thompson of Syracuse, N. Y. late Saturday afternoon. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lowry of Evanston, at five o'clock. The bride, lovely in white, was attended by Mrs. Granger who wore a gown of yellow tulle and a wreath and bouquet of yellow daisies and blue delphinium. The small flower girl, Ann Lowry, 7, was dressed in white dotted swiss, and had a wreath and bouquet of yellow daisies. A wedding reception and buffet supper followed the marriage service. Both bride and groom were prominent members of the graduating class of Northwestern University in 1934 and were Phi Beta Kappa. They will make their home in Syracuse.

Miss Gladys Kropp

Bride of Howard Fish

A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's church in Lake Zurich Saturday evening when Miss Gladys Kropp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kropp, became the bride of Howard Fish of Barrington. Rev. E. A. Iron officiated, reading the single ring service in the presence of members of the immediate families and a group of close friends.

The bride was lovely in pale blue lace with a corsage of white gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Miss Little Kropp who wore a deeper shade of blue lace and carried yellow roses.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Fish will be at home at 128 N. Hager avenue.

Mrs. Frank Cady Jr. of Barrington was a guest at the wedding.
