Chicago Woman Is Hurt in Head-on Collision Sunday Mrs. Valerie Golon, 1733 Hermitage avenue, Chicago, was injured when a car driven by her brother-in-law, William Golon, 3004 Grand avenue, Chicago, was struck head-on by a machine driven by Dr. Warren E. Pugh, 4232 N. Paulina avenue, Chicago on route 60 two miles south of Lake Zurich early Sunday evening.

Undergoes Operation Hobart Berghorn, 514 Prairie avenue, postal clerk at the local post office, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Garfield Park hospital in Chicago Wednesday morning. According to reports, he is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Emma Seider 88th Birthday Mrs. Emma Seider, who lives at the home of her son, John, at 824 Hill in Fox River Grove, will celebrate her 88th birthday July 2. Mrs. Seider is the daughter of John Rudolph Blatter who emigrated to this country as a lad of 17 with 249 Swiss colonists 125 years ago. They pooled their money for three years and chartered a sailing vessel from France, believing America to be a small province. After three months they arrived at New Orleans, bringing with them cows, horses, wagons, goats, chickens and camping equipment.

At New Orleans they formed a caravan and moved into Missouri, following the Mississippi river to St. Louis. They then moved 29 miles east of the Mississippi where they settled. Eight years later John Blatter met and married Mary Heitz. Their child, Mrs. Seider, recalls when 5 years later the St. Louis and Hannibal railroad was completed and the whites and Indians joined in the celebration. The location
