William Powell Stars at Catlow Sunday, Monday

Jimmie Allen Billed in "The Sky Parade" as Fourth of July Special

The sands of Sahara fame with revolt, and the Foreign Legion nights and loves with gallantry in the star picturization of Ouida's "Under Two Flags," which is now being screened at the Catlow. Ronald Colman, Claudette Colbert, Victor McLaglen and Rosalind Russell are top names in the cast which includes 22 featured players and 10,000 extras.

Movie fans who desire to see the picture from the start are reminded that the film begins promptly at 7:15 and 9:15 p. m.; Friday night will close the run of "Under Two Flags."

All the exciting adventure and gripping action which have made "The Air Adventures of Jimmie Allen" the most popular serial on the radio have been brought to the screen in his first picture, "The Sky Parade," which plays the Catlow Saturday, the 4th of July.

Featured with Jimmie Allen, beloved hero of millions of radio fans, are a host of screen favorites, including William Gararan, Katherine DeMille, Kent Taylor, Grant Withers, Dean Jagger, Bonnie Bartlett and Billy Lee.

A new William Powell picture is an event in itself, and in "The Ex-Mrs. Bradford," playing Sunday and Monday, it is made even more auspicious by the presence of the lovely costar, Jean Arthur, who plays the title role.

Delightful tom-foolery and droll, may-care spirit in the face of danger make this photoplay one of the smartest of the current films.

Powell is a surgeon with a penchant for mysteries; Jean is his ex-wife with a yen to win him back, and the complications that ensue make "The Ex-Mrs. B." about the gayest murder mystery ever brought to the screen.

A new Charlie Chase comedy band act and late news will open the Sunday-Monday program.

The glorious West, as depicted by Zane Grey and his wolf of the screen by Paramount, with "Buster" Crabbe, Monte Blue, Tom Keene and Raymond Hattan, form the warp and woof of "Desert Gold," the bargain night offering.

In "The Unouarded Hour," scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday, a story is told of an attorney whose brilliance enables him to secure convictions by circumstantial evidence alone.

Later he himself becomes involved in a crime—traced in a chain of circumstantial evidence which he cannot break. From the opening scenes at a Mayfair party to the fadeout in a tennis court, there is no lacing in the cumulation of suspense.

In the past is Franchot Tone, Rosetta Young, Lewis Stone and Roland Young.

Cats Arm in Fall
 Victor Hieke, 216 Coolidge avenue, who is employed at the local school building, stepped into a hole as he descended from a ladder Monday and struck his left arm against a cement pier. He fell with such force that a deep gash was cut in his arm just below the elbow. Medical attention was given Mr. Hieke and it was necessary to take six stitches in dressing the wound.
