A satisfactory recovery was reported today for Mrs. R. L. Huszagh, injured in a taxi-truck smashup in Chicago last Thursday. Mrs. Huszagh has been suffering from a head bruise, concussion and body bruises. X-rays taken following the accident indicated that there were no broken bones.

Clara, oldest daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Huszagh, was slightly bruised in the accident, which occurred in the subway under Michigan avenue.

Mrs. Huszagh and Diane, returning from a trip to Castle Park Mich., were riding in a taxi from the boat landing toward the North Western depot, when their conveyance was struck by a Chicago Tribune truck. Mrs. Huszagh was thrown against the side of the car and rendered unconscious from the impact. Diane, whose nose was bruised, but who was not seriously hurt, furnished necessary information for the police and had her mother taken to Hennrich hospital for treatment.
