

Five Die When Car Rams Into Bridge

Five persons, including the wife and three children of a hospitalized World War veteran, were killed in what is reported as the worst auto crash in the history of McHenry county, which occurred on route 173 two miles west of Hebron at 2:10 a. m. Saturday.

The car, a sedan, believed to have been driven by Sam Casazza, struck a concrete bridge abutment which spans the dry bed of Nippersink creek.

Those instantly killed were: Mrs. John J. Casazza, 42 years old, Kenosha, Wis.; Sarah Casazza, 19 years old; Freddie Casazza, 9 years old; Raymond Barnes, 17-year-old friend of the Casazzas. Another daughter, Patricia, 10 years old, died several hours later at the Harvard Memorial hospital. Sam Casazza is reported not expected to live having been in an unconscious state since the crash.

According to State Patrolman Omir Olson, who investigated the crash, the body of Mrs. Casazza was found in the dry creek bed 60 feet from the car. That will be the fact that the machine was a twisted mass of steel and glass indicated that the car had been traveling at a high rate of speed. The concrete abutment pierced the car doors and crushed the occupants, according to witnesses.

W. C. Fields in "Poppy" Coming Sunday-Monday

"Hearts Divided" Featuring Five Stars at Cawlow Wed.-Thurs.

Robert Louis Stevenson's, "The Club Under its screen" of "Trouble for Two" is being shown the last times tonight. The madcap adventures of Prince and Princess Brenda brought to life by Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell. Friday night will be given the return screening of "Sibyl Temple's, "Captain January."

"Brides Are Like That," a box a groome, because they take a million dollars in love and bucks in cash will insure them annuity for life—at least that the situation in the film which plays the Cawlow Saturday night.

Ross Alexander and Anita Page play the leading roles in a story of a small town ne'er-do-well who nearly loses his girl because of his happy-go-lucky disposition. Comedy, news, sport and Pathe News are additional spots for this bill; with the P. M. event scheduled as usual.

"Poppy," playing Sunday-Monday, marks the return of Fields to the movies after a critical illness of more than eight months.

"Poppy" is a carnival story which means that Fields glories in as a thing which is his natural element. It is set in love and means that Fields walks and talks in the ark of the period he is best to interpret. It calls for a lovely rogue whose pomp-factory clears the way for the fancy of a pair of youngsters which means Fields is in charge.

The story opens with Fields the guardian on an 18-year-old girl, Rochelle Hudson, who has spent her entire life moving from carnival to another with him. Two set up upon selling patent medicine at a sideshow.

Rochelle falls in love with Harold Cromwell, son of the man of the small town, in which "greatest show on earth" is playing. Meanwhile Fields hears of fortune lying idle in the village awaiting the appearance of long-lost heiress.

He plans to palm off Rochelle as the missing girl. He succeeds but she has no sooner taken possession than his fakery is revealed. A plot twist brings the happy ending, with Rochelle settled in a town and Fields hitting the road in search of new and greater exploits.

In addition to the feature Sunday-Monday program lists "Our Gang" comedy, comic cartoons, news and community singing. "The Irish in Us" is reretored as the greatest hit ever made. James Cagney and Pat O'Brien is scheduled for return show Tuesday at bargain night price.

The Wednesday and Thursday following are the days allotted the screening of "Hearts Divided." Five great stars, Marion Day, Dick Powell, Charlie Ruggles, Dick Everitt, Horatio and Gladys Haines, play leading historical roles in this story of the wooing of a winning of the brilliant and beautiful Betty Patterson by Capt. Jerome Bonaparte, brother of French Emperor.
