When a bride is advised to wear something blue the idea is darkened back to the ancient Jews, for whom that color was the symbol of purity, love and fidelity.

Olson Meets Bruns at Round Lake Open Air Arena Friday

Ole Olson, 238 pound Swedish wrestling champion, returns to Lake county after almost a year of absence, to give young Bob Bruns, sensational blonde Adonis, one of the toughest tests of his entire career Friday night, August 28, in the Round Lake Open Air Arena in a match to the finish as the main event of the sixth all-star mat program at the summer season.

Bruns, who is still "hot under the collar" because of the raw deal he received in his recent match with Jim McMillen, is out to avenge this defeat and prove that he is the rightful number one claimant to world title honors. Local mat fans are still talking about the recent McMillen-Bruns match with opinions divided as to who the better man really is.

Olson was the first choice of the local matchmaker for a match with Bobby when McMillen flatly refused to meet up with the blonde husky for a return set-off. Ole is the originator and greatest exponent of the jaw crushing, neck cracking, Swedish face-lock, and is one of the greatest box-office attractions in the East. In Bruns he will be facing a tartar and may find the going tougher than he expects. This match will mark the pair's second meeting, as they grappled to a thrilling thirty-minute draw last summer at Round Lake.

Ancient Durazzo
Durazzo, a port of the youthful kingdom of Albania, was founded as Epidamnus at the end of the Seventh century B. C. Quarrels over its ownership led to the Peloponnesian war of 431 B. C. It changed hands many times until the Kingdom of Albania was created in 1913.
