63rd Campmeeting
Ends Monday With Large Attendance

Leaders Report a Successful Session; J. C. Plagge Honored Friday

The last session of the 63rd annual campmeeting at the Barrington park camp grounds drew to a close Monday morning and marked the end of a highly successful period. Inclement weather predominated during the period but despite this, attendance was reported as highly gratifying by those in charge of the program.

At the anniversary service Friday morning, a tabernacle Bible was presented to the park association to be used at all future meetings by the family of the late J. C. Plagge, who served for many years as head of the association. In addition to memorial services for Mr. Plagge, 23 persons of 70 years of age or over were honored. The average age of these 23 persons was figured to be 74 years.

The Christianschurch flag reward given the church with the best percentage of attendance was won by the Diversary Parkway church of Chicago. Presentation of the banner was made at the Sunday school program Sunday afternoon. A declamatory contest was won by the direction of Mrs. R. Willmering and known as a Missionary Band Silver Medal contest was won by Geneva Landwehr, who had as her selection, "Nelly's Gift," Thursday afternoon.

Other contestants were William Molners, Frank Pederson and Helen Blake. Judges were Mesdames W. Norrenberger, C. Stenson and T. Johnson.

Mary Jane Blanke presented a piano solo and Frances Plagge and Mary Glatfelter gave a vocal duet as additional entertainment on the program.
