Football Candidates to Receive Physical Examination Friday

Candidates for the football team of Barrington high school are requested to be present at the bathhouse in Woodside park Friday afternoon for physical examination. Coach Paul Clark requested Wednesday.

A physician will be in attendance from 1 o'clock on in afternoon and again at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Coach Clark also stated that the school uniforms and equipment will be issued to the candidates for the teams at that time.

Members of the heavyweight squad include Eugene Kincaid tackle, Al Mountain tackle, Art Conrad guard and Bob Cadwallader and Frankhart in the backfield. Ben Meller and Chuck Mienowski are on the second team and are expected to be starting lineup this season.

Someone will have no team this year as the local boys will have to go to larger schools to compete which will make it a little harder on the Bronks as Palatine seemed to always yield, giving the boys that much needed rest.

Coach Hooford's lightweight prospects are also rather few and far between.

Some of the prospectives are Art Caste and Jack
