

Thirty-Nine Candidates Turn Out for Football; Five Are Veterans

Clarkmen to Play Five Conference Games; 2 at Home

Brochos Will Play First Conference Game With Warren October 3

Many more muscles are in view of the 39 men who reported for football Tuesday afternoon. This group consists of veterans and new recruits. For the first few days the boys will take it easy, but in a couple of days work will begin in earnest and the men will be given those prospective positions in the team.

Only five lettermen are back with the Bronks this year. There is, however, quite a large group of prospects who checked out equipment. The team this year will probably have one of the fastest back-sides they have had in several years.

This season's squad and other teams who play here will find a very nice turf field which will be in good condition in all weather. Besides the heavy and light-weight teams which will be coached by P. E. Clark and T. C. Hosford respectively, there will be a third team consisting mostly of freshmen and sophomores which will be under the supervision of H. J. Kennedy.

The local gridironists will play their first game of the conference Saturday Oct. 3 with Warren on the home field. They may, however, have a few scrimmage games for practice before that date.

Persons who have reported thus far are: Jack Mountain, Paul Jones, Bushnell Fullerton, Virgil Wilkins, Pat O'Donnell, Lawrence Jones, Keith Kampert, Roy Ettinger, Stephen Chupicek, Roy Holzberg, Robert Darschler, Ralph Bennett, Kenneth Clingo, Arthur Conrad, Norman Nantel, William Saul, Robert Cadwallader, William Nestlerode, Morris Grabenkort, Malcolm McAlon, Clyde Church, Eugene Kinard, Earl Grabenkort, George Wood, Jack Shepard, Ray Hodgson, Edward Gatre, Charles Elmer, William Tely, Robert Plagge, Richard Watson, Burton Wood, Peter Johnson, Arthur Castle, Bayard Olmsted, Leonard Miller, John Speck, Robert McLachlin, and Charles Minton.

The final standing of the Northwest conference football schedule for 1935 is as follows:

Team	W	L	Pts.	O.P.
Linden	5	0	65	7
