

Install Officers of Grove Legion, Auxiliary Groups

Mrs. Myrtle Nance Presides at Installation of Woman's Unit Wednesday

Installation of newly-elected officers of the Fox River Grove American Legion post and American Legion Auxiliary took place last week. Installation of the Auxiliary heads took place in the village hall Wednesday evening with Mrs. Myrtle Nance, past 11th district director, vice president of the 2nd division and department of Illinois by-laws chairman for the year, as installing officer.

American Legion officers were escorted to their new positions at a meeting held in the village hall Friday night. Mrs. Nance presided. Mrs. Ida Nance, inducted Mrs. Ida Nance into office as president of the Auxiliary in the installation ceremony. Other officers to take their seats with Mrs. Nance were as follows: Mrs. Dagmar Olumstad, first vice president; Mrs. Martha Strand, second vice president; Mrs. Sylvia Kryl, chaplain; Mrs. Alice Catronotta, secretary; Mrs. Bertheilde Waagen, treasurer; Mrs. Josephine Perone, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Emily Vorles, assistant sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Anna Hoop, historian.

Mrs. Alice Catronotta, retiring president, was presented with a president's pin and Mrs. Bertheilde Waagen, retiring treasurer, each received a secretary's and treasurer's pin respectively.

Mrs. Nance was presented with a beautiful flower corsage of ten roses from the unit. The Junior group of the unit was also present at the meeting. Mrs. Nance presented the group with an American flag which was awarded as second prize of the Junior Activity award contest conducted by the 11th district.

Mrs. Sylvia Kryl, Mrs. Helen Maul and Mrs. Amy Jones, representative committee for the installation meeting, prepared a supper which was served at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Those taking coffee with Mr. Jones were as follows: Frank Nance, vice commander; Victor Long, adjutant; George Warner, treasurer; George Grubis, service officer; Joseph Varhanek, sergeant-at-arms; Louis Strand, chaplain; Max Forese, historian.
