Children Awarded Ribbons, Flowers by Garden Club

Garden Club of Barrington Sponsors Event Friday

The school auditorium was a blaze of color Friday when local pupils competed in the annual flower show sponsored by the Garden Club of Barrington. As in former years, club members contributed beautiful bouquets to judge the children.

Grade school children entered bouquets and flowers and arrangements as in the past "but these this year show a real improvement." Mrs. E. J. Smith, general chairman of the affair, commented.

The club awarded ribbons, blue being the winning first, red second, yellow third, and white an honorable mention. In addition, they gave iris bulbs to all first place winners. Judges were Frank H. Hammond, Mrs. Frank H. H. Hammond, Mrs. Frank H. H. Hammond, Mrs. Frank H. H. Hammond.

Car Hits Pole
Mrs. Rose Holland, Lake Zurich, was slightly injured when the car she was driving, owned by Mrs. H. R. Hammond, collided with an electric pole on west Main street Tuesday morning. Mrs. Holland suffered slight contusions. The car was not heavily damaged.

Return From Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Upton and children Jack and Margaret of Barrington township and Mrs. Selma Herrin of Barrington returned Friday from a 3000 mile automobile trip and a two weeks' vacation spent in Colorado.

Best Fishing Tackle Window

Selected as the best fishing tackle window in Illinois, Walter Prehn's display of fly hooks and other artificial lures received honorable mention from the Hardware Retail Journal, national trade magazine.

Mr. Prehn has thousands of hooks, flies and plugs in the window of his Lake Zurich store as shown in the picture. Above the window is a man-sized tarpon which was caught off the Florida coast and mounted for this display.

Some fine Lake Zurich specimens of large mouth bass are mounted and on display in the store but are not in the tackle window.

will be judged by persons selected by W. C. Pety.
The committee in charge reports that all exhibits must be entered by 10 a. m. Friday to be eligible for prizes and may be brought in any time after 4 p. m. Thursday.

The Future Farmers' club and Home Economics Class of Elva township high school will serve food Thursday evening and Friday.

Lockjaw Fatal to Delores Obenaus

Delores Obenaus, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Obenaus, former residents of Barrington, died in St. Theresa's hospital, Waukegan, Tuesday. Death was caused by lockjaw.

The child had run a splinter into her foot while playing barefoot September 16. Part of the splinter was removed but symptoms of lockjaw developed Thursday and she was rushed to the hospital.

Funeral services were held at St. Mary of the People's church in Mundelein at 10 a. m. Wednesday. Burial took place at Fremont Center.

Her family has been living on a farm four miles west of Mundelein in Lake county since they left Barrington. They had lived in the village about seven years, the father having conducted a garage here with George Kuhman.

Sam Miller, Indian Chief, to Speak at St. Matthew Church

Sam Miller, member of the Stockbridge Indian tribe and last chief of the Mohicans, will be the guest speaker at a program at St. Matthew Evangelical Lutheran church Friday evening. Mr. Miller has appeared on many programs as a lay member of the Lutheran church and will talk on Indian customs.

In addition to his remarks, it was reported that Mr. Miller will show a complete set of Indian regalia and other items used by the Indians.

A reception in the church parlors will be held after the main talk by the church proper. Visitors will be given an opportunity to meet Mr. Miller at this time. Rev. J. T. Kretzmann reported.

Attend Convention
Mr. and Mrs. K. Shoup, 146 W. Main street, left Sunday for Cleveland, O. G. O. Shoup attended the national American Legion convention. Mr. Shoup is commander of the local post. After the convention the local couple will travel to Washington, D. C., and New York City.

Missionary Group to Present Play

The Missionary society of Salem church will present a five-act play, "The Honorable Mrs. Ling's Conviction," in the church parlors Thursday afternoon, Oct. 1. The play, which lasts one hour, will begin promptly at 2 p. m., according to Mrs. A. Wirsing who is coaching the production.

It is a Chinese story with 14 characters. Leading roles will be played by Mrs. Henry Soder, Mrs. A. R. Keel, Mrs. V. B. Hawley and Mrs. Eugene Grobe. Other characters will be acted by Mrs. John Schaefer, Mrs. Leslie Bauman, Mrs. S. H. Kampert, Mrs. Robert Berg, Mrs. H. Brandt, Mrs. George Dietrich, Mrs. Harold Homuth, Mrs. Selma Herrin, Mrs. L. Wagner and Mrs. Earl Schaefer.

Bricklayers Injured When Scaffold Drops

Frank Schulerberg, Arlington Heights, and E. Langerhausen, Des Plaines, bricklayers working on the C. B. Allyn residence on Hillside avenue, were injured when a scaffolding gave way and dropped them about 15 feet into the basement excavation on the outside of the building Tuesday morning. The building is being erected by Norman T. Mason, architect and contractor.

They were taken to a doctor for medical attention and Schulerberg was removed to the Sherman hospital where an x-ray examination showed a fractured rib. Langerhausen suffered severe lacerations and contusions.

Birth
Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Connolly, 517 S. Cook street, are the parents of a son, John Ralph, born at the Sherman hospital in Elgin Thursday morning.

Baptist Exhibits Attract Crowds

More than 200 persons viewed the exhibit of handmade articles, artwork, flowers and hobbies on display at the Baptist church Thursday and Friday. Judges awarded ribbons to the best in each class but there were so many entries and such a number of classes in each division that the ribbon winners were too long to be listed.

About 50 lovely quilts were included in the array and 33 rugs, all handmade. One of the most unique was a rug made of old sacks which had been dyed, then woven into a pattern adopted from a Navajo Indian design at the Art Institute.

Judges of the various exhibits were Mrs. E. A. Beerman, rug; Mrs. S. E. Gleske, Mrs. Harold Grobe, quilts and needlework; Mrs. Fred Record, Mrs. R. R. Hammond and Mrs. Willard Watson, airplanes.

Local Brevities

Officers and teachers of the Baptist Sunday school met in the church parlors Wednesday evening and laid plans for the year's work. Jack Fletcher, 611 Summit street, has enrolled in the evening class of Northwestern university and will begin his work this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hager and Mrs. Elizabeth Hansen, 104 Dundee avenue, called on their brother-in-law, Fred Smith, who is ill at Dr. Brand's hospital in Woodstock.

Mr. Albert Wolfe is ill at his home, 412 N. Cook street. Alfred Castle, 525 Grove avenue, is leaving today for Cambridge, Mass., where he will enter the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for the school year.

Dr. A. E. Peterson, state superintendent of the Illinois Baptist state convention, spoke at the Baptist church in Barrington Sunday morning.
