Barrington Woman's Club

Ninety-one members and guests of the Barrington Woman's club attended a luncheon-meeting inaugurating the club year, held at Barrington Hills Country club Wednesday afternoon.

Following a delicious luncheon, Mrs. Lester Higgins, president, graciously welcomed guests and gave a brief resume of the club budget. Mrs. Cecil Kellam introduced members. It was voted to have the president appoint a program chairman in January.

Reports of a state meeting by Mrs. Harold Grebe and a district meeting by Mrs. Max Lines concluded the business session.
Mrs. John Schwamm, program chairman, introduced the talented artist of the afternoon, Frances Ganton Crane, and her accompanist, George Almondinger of Hinsdale.

Mrs. Grace presented Deems Taylor's opera "Peter Ibbetson" in fascinating fashion, enacting the various roles with vitality and charm. Her versatility in speaking and singing French, then English yet always making the meaning clear to her audience, was remarkable. Mr. Almondinger provided a perfect musical background for her rendition.

Members of the Barrington Woman's club and of the Junior Woman's club are invited to attend the regional conference to be held at the Sherman hotel at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, October 29.
A "Pound" party is scheduled to be held Wednesday, Oct. 28, at the Chicago Woman's Shelter at 1514 W. Adams street, Chicago, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 9 p. m. Admission is a pound of anything, which is to be left at the Peerless Market, Park avenue, Barrington, and is to benefit the Little Wanderers. It is hoped a large attendance will add this worthy cause.

Interest in Election Is Highest in Year

of the state versus an applicant planned by the democrats. Tatter have one man in office now — the county clerk — and are trying to increase their holdings.
The picture in Cook county reversed. The democrats have the control which the republicans are trying to seize.
Lake county voters will accept or reject one proposal; that — establishment of a county tuberculosis sanitarium financed by tax not over 1 1/2 mills. Cook county voters outside of Chicago have no proposals before them, but Chicago voters will decide issue important to all suburbs as well as city residents. That of eastern time or central time for the city.
Regardless of which is accepted, the suburbs will for convenience accept the same schedule.
