Miss Florence Patten

Bride of Clark Sheesley
A beautiful fall wedding took place at the First Baptist church Saturday afternoon when Miss Florence Patten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Patten, 415 Washington street, became the bride of Clark Sheesley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sheesley of Coal Valley.

Rev. Charles R. Drussel officiated using the impressive string service. The bride was lovely in a white satin gown made a long princess line. Her long silk net veil, held in place by a head band, fell softly over the train. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas.

At the strains of Lohengrin, with Mrs. Alta Bennett at the organ, the bridal party took their places in front of the church before an embankment of palms, ferns, and beautiful white and yellow chrysanthemums. The bride was given away by her father, Mrs. Arthur Jahnik, who served her sister as matron of honor, with a dark green velvet gown with tulle trim of the same color. Miss Lucille Sheesley, a cousin of the groom, and Miss June Kotel served as bridesmaids. Miss Kotel wore moss green velvet. Both had turbans the color of their floor length gowns and each carried an arm bouquet of rust chrysanthemums. Doris Ann Jahnik, small niece of the bride, served as a pretty little flower girl, strewn white rose petals before the bride.

Senton Hardin attended the groom. Charles and Kenneth Sheesley, brother and cousin of the groom, were the ring bearers. The guests from away included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheesley, grandparents of the groom, who were 80 and 75 years old. Their home is in Orion. Other out of town guests were Mrs. Ira Woolley and sons Glenn and Bill, of Orion, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sheesley, son Charles and Mr. and Mrs. Senton Hardin of Coal Valley. Mrs. Fred Ulbrich of Peoria and Mrs. Patten McElhaney of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheesley will make their home in Moline.
