

Broncho Cagers to Go Into Action Nov. 25; First Game With Warren

Heavy Conference Slate Faces Broncho Cagers for 1936

Swing Into Regular Practice Routine With Important Tills Coming

Now that football suits are discarded and put away, the broncho athletes will turn their attention to basketball. The first official practice for heavyweights was held Monday night.

About 12 men are on the docket for this squad. Only two men are back from last year's squad. They are Caldwell and Grabenkov. Eugene Kincaid, Edward Gaare, Ralph Beerman, Everett Gaare, Charles Egan, Walter Wolf, Ernest Rice, Charles Minor, Leonard Meyer, and William Ticky are the remaining men who will fight it out on the practice floor for positions on the first team.

All of last year's lights are back, several of whom have good possibilities of being valuable men. Men who will probably make their debut as regulars on the light-weight are Shepard, Carlo, Mountain and Cline. Aside from the two main teams there will be a Fresh-Soph squad which will play a number of games.

Not much can be predicted as to the prospective teams until they have been observed over fire.

The Bronks will play two games over the week-end. The contests are practice games. Friday, the "Bronks" will engage in a scrimmage with Woodstock on the local floor. Saturday both the heavies and lights will play at Elgin.

Non-Conference Schedule November 25—Warren; here, Nov. 26—Waukegan, there, Dec. 4—Niles Center, here, Feb. 12—Niles Center, there. The date of the Alumni game has not been definitely set.

Stones Told Battle Losses

Not far from Braemar in Scotland is the Cairn of Remembrance, a heap of stones where the Clan Farquharson once gathered in time of war. Each man used to bring a stone to lay on the heap, and when the clan disbanded once more, each used to take another rock, leaving the rest of them as a memorial to those who died in battle.

Football fans witnessed one of the hardest played games of the conference season Saturday as the Leyden Eagles took their final victory of the season at Dodge field, defeating the Bronchos 6 to 0.

The Bronks played an excellent game Saturday making the Eagles work hard for their victory. Several of the Eagles declared that the Bronks were the toughest opposition that they had run into this year.

The first quarter was mostly a punting duel, both team attempting to gain ground fast. Barrington had the wind with them and succeeded in getting the ball up to Leyden's 20 yard line. Grabenkov tried a field goal, but was unsuccessful.

In the second period Leyden used a series of last line plays on a steady march into the Bronk territory. The Eagles worked the pigskin up to the Bronchos 15 yard mark. Here Marzulo took a lateral from Sewaki and went around right end taking the ball over the goal. The officials, however, claimed it invalid as Marzulo was brought to his knees before the run was completed.

In the third quarter Leyden kicked off to Barrington's goal but was unsuccessful in scoring. Both teams painted a great deal to gain ground. The Eagles had the ball on their own 30 yard mark and attempted to pass Kincaid rushed in taking the pass for a gain of 15 yards. For a moment it looked as if he were going to score, but he was dived on the 15 yard line.

Leyden Scores

With no score and none in view the Eagles tore down the field with vague hopes of a touchdown. The ball was on the Bronks' 15 yard mark when Wiedemeyer, a fast half back, got loose on an end run carrying the leather to the 10 yard line. With three minutes to play Sewaki took the ball around right end to score. No point after touchdown was scored.

Starting Lineup

- Bronchos: O Eagles, G Gaare, LE Roalo, Mountain LT, Lone Castle, LF, Marzio W, Omatad C, Malone Kemptert, RG, Smith Kincaid RT, Wiort
