

High School Basketball Teams Swing Into Action With Practice Tilts

Bronchos to Meet Warren, Waukegan Over Week-End

Frank Cagers Dump St. Mary's; Lose Two to Elgin in Practice

The Bronchos received their first taste of basketball over the week-end with hopeful results. Today the lights went to Woodstock and defeated the St. Mary's boys by a wide margin. These boys played a nice game, showing some real possibilities as cagers. Saturday morning both the boys and lights went to Elgin for a scrimmage. Neither of the local teams seemed to be going very strong, taking a defeat in both games.

The boys were off on shooting as well as floor work. The Bronchos and Meller forwards, Miner, Wolf, and Edward Gagne, centers; Kincaid and Cadwaller, guards, made up the double heavyweight lineup. These two week-end tilts were merely practice for the locals giving them a chance to warm up before the start of the conference season. The local cagers will open their conference slate Wednesday, Nov. 25, with Warren on the home team. The Bronchos are predicted to have a tough match with the Blue Devils.

Phillips and Portegay, forwards; W. Phillips, centers, are back from last year's line-up and will furnish the locals plenty of competition Wednesday, Saturday, Nov. 28, the cagers will travel to Waukegan. Elgin made a fine showing last week holding Palatine to a 15 to 10 score. Arlington, who will likely prove contender for the conference title, defeated Bensenville 16 to 16. Loryden and Lake Forest are experienced teams and will be in the line for honors. Complete information on the various conference teams will be in the Review in the near future.

Church Cagemen Will Hold First Games December 7

Church league cagers held their first practice Monday night with the season of games in view. The church leaguers will have a series of games every Monday night starting December 7. These games have always drawn a large group of basketball fans and they are predicted to be even more interesting this season as several new men will be in the lineup, who were on the BIS team last year.

New men in the league are as follows: Salem—"Tuck" Condit, George Condit, Harry Evers, Arthur and Smith; Methodist—Kleinstein; St. Paul—Reik, Deibel and Johnson. Election of officers was also held Monday night and David Smith was elected president. Ed Biechele was named secretary. Complete lineups will be run in the Review next week.

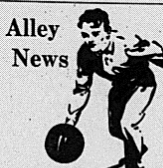

"Little Englanders" The term "Little Englanders" came into prominence at the time of the South African war of 1899-1902 and was applied to Englishmen who preferred to see England as a contented and self-contained rather than a world empire with the attendant dangers.

SPECIAL MATCH

Competition was at its highest peak with the rolling of the first game of a series between the traditional rivals of the Barrington Jefferson Ice company bowling teams and two teams from the Chicago branches at Barrington Recreation last Thursday night.

The two teams representing Barrington again proved the superiority of the Chicago quintets by rolling a total of 5711 pins against 6090 maples. The locals after the series last year, Barrington team No. 1 took two games but had to go over the 900 mark each time after losing the first game. Barrington team No. 2 won one, lost one and tied at 844 in the second.

At the conclusion of the bowling, the local bowlers were guests of the Chicago men at a turkey dinner at the Bank Tavern. A series is to be rolled in Chicago between the same groups in the near future.
