Barrington Woman's Club

The Barrington Woman's club held its Christmas party Wednesday afternoon in the lobby of the Catlow theatre with children of members as guests of honor. There was a satisfactory number of young guests to enjoy the beautiful tree and program.
 The president, Mrs. Lester Higgins, called the meeting to order, having the minutes read and a few announcements. Mrs. A. C. Lines reported the final amount collected in the Red Cross drive as $270.34. The president then announced the program having just tribute to Mr. Catlow's public spirit both on this and on all occasions. The club could not have this program at all except through his generosity, she said.
 She introduced Mr. Davis and
