

School Children Arrange Japanese Program, Tea Party

A Japanese tea party has been planned by Miss M. H. and her pupils to third grade at the public school for Friday afternoon at 1:45. Most of the children are to be guests of honor.

An original program, arranged by the pupils, will be followed by the serving of Japanese refreshments.

Japanese articles have been collected in preparation for the home and the children made a paper doll and a cherry blossom tree. Each wrote the invitation to his mother.

Edwards committee during the election after having resigned last spring when the sewer construction was made a public issue. His resignation was made in a public statement by the publisher of the review. He was elected to the board. Mr. Edwards was first elected in 1914 and again in 1916. During his time on the board, he was elected in April of 1916. He was elected in April of 1916. He was elected in April of 1916.

The new candidates include B. A. Schroeder, William Nightingale, and Joseph B. Berg. Mr. Schroeder has been a life-long resident of Barrington. He has been connected with the insurance business. He was elected to the board. He was elected to the board. He was elected to the board.

William Nightingale is also a native of Barrington and has been in business for a long period. He was elected to the board. He was elected to the board. He was elected to the board.

Joe LaPointe has been a resident of Barrington for the last two years and first became active as a champion of the sewer issue. This is his first venture into municipal politics as a candidate. He was employed by the post office department until recently.

Rudolph Berg was elected in Barrington for 25 years. He was elected president of the board of Ciba township at the primary held in April of 1923. This is the first time he has sought a village office, although he was very active and successful in organizing the Ciba town republicans club last fall.

Police Magistrate A. D. Church is unopposed in seeking re-election for his office and is expected to pull heavy among the complacent voters.

In the contest for library board there is no opposition. Mrs. E. L. Anderson and Mrs. John Anderson are seeking election as trustees for two four-year terms and Mrs. W. D. Dettler and Mrs. M. Wallace for two two-year terms.

Among the contractors who seek the vacant seats on the board, there is no opposition. Mr. Peter Anderson moved from the village and the other candidates are seeking office with a number of years service to their credit.
