Miss Geddes Bride

of Charles Hawley

Salem church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday afternoon, at four o'clock when Miss Allee Marie Geddes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Geddes of Orand Island, Neb. became the bride of Charles Preston Hawley, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Hawley of Barrington. A prelude of soft organ music and two vocal numbers,
"Because" and "I Love You Trujy," sung by Ray Gleske with Miss Naomi Tate at the organ, preceded the exchange of rows. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and took their places in front of an attar banked with paims and ferns. Two tail candelabrs, each holding aseren ivory candles, lightholding aseren ivory candles, light-ferns. Two tall candelabra, each holding seven ivory candles, lighted the auditorium for the service. The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her away. Rev., W. A. Stauffer officiated using the impressive single ring service. Lawrence Geddes, a brother of the bride, served as best man.
