100 Guests a Day at Jewel Tea Co. Ninety-five women were guests of Jewel Tea Co. Tuesday and 110 women were guests Wednesday in two of a series of sight seeing tours conducted by the company throughout the late spring and summer months. The guests Tuesday were from women's organizations in Forest Park, Glenco, Oak Park and Chicago. The Wednesday visitors were from Embarras in a tour sponsored by the Congregational church of that community. Throughout the coming season, Jewel expects to entertain one or two groups of guests each week, according to Fred Fleming, plant superintendent. The visitors are taken on a tour of inspection through the plant, are served dinner at the cafeteria, and hold a bridge party or other entertainment in the Jewel auditorium.

School Orchestra Benefit Dance Is Planned for Friday

The second of a series of events this week benefiting Barrington high school orchestra will be a dance at the school auditorium Friday evening. The Franklin Graham orchestra will provide music for dancing and a prize waltz to be a feature of entertainment. There will be cards and games for those who do not care to dance. Each table will receive a prize. Members of the school orchestra are selling tickets to the dance but tickets may also be procured at the ticket window that evening according to Mrs. E. A. Beerman, president of the Mother's club of the music department of the public school which is sponsoring the affair.

Proceeds will be added to the fund for sending the orchestra to Columbus, Ohio for the national tournament.

About 75 persons attended a benefit organ recital for the orchestra at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Trier of Cuba township Tuesday evening. Porter Heaps, well-known organist of Chicago who gave the program, preceded his recital with a talk on organs. Mrs. Beerman who served as chairman of the ticket committee for the recital was assisted by Mrs. W. N. Sears, Mrs. John Sheeley, Mrs. J. W. Langdale, Mrs. Henry Bass and Mrs. R. D. Wells.
