Holstein Breeders Plan Cattle Show

The Holstein cattle breeders located in Lake and Cook counties have completed plans for a one-day "Black & White" show to be held June 19 at Hillside picnic grounds, located one-half mile north of Grayslake on route 54.

Demonstrations will be held to illustrate the value of improved breeding through the use of superior sires and foundation females. Judging contests will be held which will be open to everyone. A picnic dinner will be enjoyed at noon by all of the Holstein breeders, their families and friends. The program for the day is essentially educational in nature and it will pay everyone who is interested in the dairy business to be present.
