Chief Sanooko to Wrestle Bob Bruns at Round Lake Ring

Matchmaker Les White conjured Chief Oley Sanooko, Cherokee Indian, the most powerful frogger in the ring to come to Pepp's Open Air Arena at Round Lake, Friday night, July 16 to wrestle the blond Adonis, Bobby Bruns, in a bout that promises to be one of the greatest seen in this vicinity.

Sanooko is a full blooded Cherokee Indian who towers 6 ft. 4 in. and tips the beam at 320 pounds. When the name of the giant is named as a possible opponent most matmen suddenly remember an urgent engagement elsewhere. In the past few seasons, the redskin has hung up a remarkable record by his crushing tactics and there are many who believe that if the promoters had not signed Bruns in advance for Friday he would not appear against the Cherokee.

The blond youngster is in the midst of a winning streak against some very imposing names of the mat and is in a position where his demands for a title match could not possibly be delayed.

In meeting the big fellow, Bruns is spotting his one hundred pound and this great weight advantage may be the undoing of the young Chicagoan, who at the present date can point to an unmarred record this season. In weighing the pros and cons of the principals in this contest, it has been pointed out that Bruns has taken a larger bite than he can chew and the fans are asking, can a good small man, relatively speaking, defeat a big man.

Aesop's Fables
Aesop is more than a shadow of a name. He was a slave from Samos who probably lived in the Sixth century before Christ. His fables were of a political nature in the time of the Greek tyrants, when unvelled speech was dangerous. Two hundred and fifty years later Demetrius of Phaleron collected a large number of fables and called them by Aesop's name. These were turned into Latin by Phaedrus, but it cannot be said definitely that any of them originated with Aesop.

Cole Bros. Circus at Elgin Friday, July 16

The world's largest circus, traveling on three trains of double-length steel railroad cars, with 3000 people, 30 elephants, 511 menagerie animals and 500 horses will exhibit in Elgin Friday, July 16.

Everybody wishes to see the Cole Bros. Circus this year, which returned early in 1935 from a triumphal five year tour of Europe, and it is a foregone conclusion that the world's largest tent, seating 10,000 persons, will be filled to the last chair afternoon and evening. Six rings and stages and the hippodrome track, to say nothing of the vast aerial mate for the earth's most foremost arena talent—400 acknowledged kings and queens of daring, grace, skill and incredible agility. Sixty clowns will project ten times that number ofirth waves. Countless new foreign features and innovations new to America are introduced on the gigantic program of the world's greatest amusement institution. Clyde Beatty's gigantic trained animal exhibition will be presented in the main performance.

Ken Maynard, the screen's greatest Western star, will personally be seen at every performance. Maynard has starred in 87 pictures produced at the major studios in Hollywood. He is by far the highest priced star ever to be seen with a circus. Appearing in his wild west show this season will be scores of champion cowboys and cowgirls, Indians and Cosacs.

Doors to the big show and the menagerie will open at 1 and 7 p. m. The big shows will start at 2 and 8 p. m.

"Good Old Soak" at Catlow Sun-Mon.

In "The Border Patrolman," coming Tuesday to the Catlow theatre, George O'Brien appears as a member of the hard-riding, hard-fighting organization of the government force that guards the international boundary between the United States and Mexico.

Polly Ann Young, Roy Nazon, Mary Doran and Smiley Burnette are included in the cast of the film, which was directed by David Howard.

Double featured with "The Border Patrolman" is "Night of Mystery."

Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwyck, the screen's most talked-about real-life sweethearts, have been teamed by Twentieth-Century-Fox in the picture the film is talking about. "This Is My Affair," which comes Wednesday for a three day engagement at the Catlow theatre.

The story of a love supremely courageous and unashamed, endangering the nation's highest places and gambling life itself for a greater stake. "This Is My Affair," provides both Taylor and Stanwyck with the most important story either of these great stars has ever had, and affords Victor McLaglen, who heads the strong supporting cast, the finest opportunity he has had since his powerful characterization in "The Informer."

MILLER BROS. FUN & FACTS

NO. 28 Barrington, Illinois, Thursday, July 15, 1937 VOL. 43
There was once a Scotchman who had a stroke of apoplexy when he bought a score card at a ball game and neither side scored.
He called his girl "bungalow" because she was painted in front, shingled behind, and she had no upstairs.
Look forward to corn harvest time and depend on the McCormick Deering corn binder to cut the corn for you. We have one on display.
Old lady at wedding: "Are you the bridegroom?"
Guest: "No, I was eliminated in the semi-finals."
Perhaps you do not have enough milk to warrant the purchase of a large separator. In that case, you'll be interested in the Milka, the biggest little separator in the world.
Household Hint: A pinch of salt is greatly improved on a hot day by dropping it into a cold stein of beer.
Even if a rain is blowing up, you can finish loading your hay in a hurry with the new McCormick Deering loader. It certainly is a speedy machine.
A man recently died and left everything he had to an orphanage—his ten children.
Myers Bros. say it pays to build good pumps. We say it pays to sell good pumps. You will say it pays to buy a good pump, if you say a Myers pump.

YOU'LL GET A BANG OUT OF THIS ONE!
Do you get a kick out of a golf ball's click when you really lean into one on the tee?
Does your heart beat faster when the big fish strikes, and your singing reel almost smokes?
Can a brisk breeze and a taut sail make you feel like a kid again, forgetting care in the sheer joy of action?
Mister, if you're like that, what a bang you'll get out of this Buick!
You'll go for the way it goes for you. You'll like the kick, eager spurt of its get-away, the buoyant, effortless steadiness of its travel.
You'll thrill to the businesslike manner in which it settles to the pull, its quiet, dogged competence in long, tough going.
You'll welcome the way it cradles you over the bumps, the neat, compact, handily mobile feel of it. You'll be proudly aware of its beauty, of the picture you make riding in its this-minute style.
But don't forget this major thing—it's the buy of the season, price-wise as well as on performance! It's still selling at the lowest price in all Buick history—you can still get a big Buick eight for less than some sizes would cost you.
So don't hold back. Good things, you know, can't last forever. Don't pass up a buy such as Buick is at its low prices now.
