SCIENCE AND DEMOCRACY

Recently Dr. Robert A. Millikan, the noted scientist, returning from Europe, said that democracy's hopes lie in the application of the scientific approach to government.

"The freedom of thinking and inquiring which is the very essence of the scientific approach is a direct offspring of the liberty, equality and fraternity for which believers in democracy laid down their lives.

"It is no accident that neither fascism nor communism fosters science with this detachment. Mussolini insists that a laboratory worker must be a good fascist first and a good scientist second.

"Pick a Star" Is Week-End Feature at Catlow Theatre

"The Prince and the Pauper" Coming Wednesday for Three Day Run

Admiral Dewey, who caused considerable excitement in the Spanish-American war, proved that he could still cause a good bit of turmoil—this time merely by losing his moustache.

The admiral, as portrayed by Robert McWade in "This is My Affair," now at the Catlow theatre, with Robert Taylor, Barbara Stanwyck, and Victor McLaglen in the leading roles, thought he had taken off his moustache before going to the studio cafe for lunch.

When he returned to his dressing room, he was unable to find his lip appendage. The makeup department searched the entire sound stage, but they were saved from further worry by a waitress.

She discovered the character actor beside an empty soup bowl, where the admiral had cautiously placed the soup strainer before tackling his noonday repast.

Selected for the part because of his resemblance to Warren G. Gagne, Tom, Jr., nine-year-old Lynne Tom, is cast as the "number two" son of the famous Chinese detective in "Charlie Chan at the Olympics" coming Saturday.

The youngster's ambition to be a policeman some day was given increased impetus with his role in the film, in which he helps his "father" in his most interesting and difficult case—the apprehension of a desperate ring of international spies intent on seizing a secret airplane radio-control device.

Playing a double feature bill Saturday is that gay and giddy fun-fest of crazy goings-on, "Hotel Haywire," with Leo Carrillo, Lynne Overman, Mary Carlisle, George Barbier, Spring Byington and Benny Baker.

Five new song bits are introduced in "Pick A Star," coming to the Catlow Sunday and Monday with an all-star comedy cast headed by Patry Kelly, Jack Heller, Rosina Lawrence, Michta Auer, Lydia Roberts and Laurel and Hardy.

A thrilling drama of men's courage in facing death to rescue ill-fated comrades is depicted in "Draegerman Courage," which comes to the Catlow theatre Tuesday.

Double featured with "Draegerman Courage," is "Angel's Holiday," with Jane Withers, Robert Kent, Joan Davis and Sally Blane.

As alike as two newly-coined pennies are Billy and Bobby Hatch, the 12-year-old twins who are fast adding stars to their crown in the entertainment world.

Already radio and stage stars when they were signed up a little more than a year ago in order to get them for "Anthony Adverse," they are now making their debut as a team on the screen in Mark Twain's well-remembered classic, "The Prince and the Pauper." The picture will open at the Catlow next Wednesday for a three day run.

No Profit in Lost Money
The government does not actually realize any profit from paper money which is lost, even though theoretically it does. The money is still held in the treasury vaults against outstanding paper currency and unless congress passed such a bill that this money might be taken out of the reserve fund, no actual profit would be derived.
