

Barrington Hills Members Thrilled at Neptune Party

BARRINGTON HILLS—Famous swimming stars of national and Olympic fame held the audience's attention with their intricate swimming acts at the annual Neptune party held at Barrington Hills Country club Saturday evening.

Miss Claudia Eckert, holder of three national championships and all-around swimmer and diver, gave a thrilling performance while the comedy team of Fred Springer and Frank Snary created the amusement for the evening.

Wally Colbath, three time winner of the national diving championship and member of the Olympic diving team, presented his entire repertoire of plain and fancy dives.

Among the hosts and hostesses who entertained at cocktails and at dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Road and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wood.

A pleasant get-together party was held at the club Thursday with a musical program furnishing the entertainment. A Hammond organ had been installed at the pool where a musician played a number of pieces. Adolph Trier surprised his father with some improvising on the instrument and drew considerable applause from the audience.

Mr. Trier led the singing that followed. Winners of the 5050 golf contest earlier Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Shurtliff of Elgin.
