Flage-Brewer Wedding

Sites Saturday

A lovely wedding was solemnized at the Salem Evangelical church Saturday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Esther Plagge daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Plagge, 126 Garfield street, became the bride of Russell Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brewer, of Algonquin.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party entered the church. The bride's father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. She was attired in a white lace gown with train and a finger-tip veil. Her shower bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Evelyn Grabenkort, who played the organ wore a pale blue organza gown, trimmed in white and a corsage of white gladioli.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Walter Cannon, a cousin of the bride, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "I Never Knew." She wore a beige lace gown and a corsage of pink roses.

During the ring ceremony, read by Rev. W. A. Stauffer, Miss Grabenkort played "I Love You Truly."

The bride was attended by Miss Ann Anderson, as bridesmaid. She wore a peach gown of muslin, de-sale and carried a bouquet of peach gladioli and forget-me-nots.

Wilbur Brewer acted as best man for his brother. Harold and Vernon Plagge, brothers of the bride, and Carl and Ernest Anderson served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a light blue crepe dress and Mrs. Brewer wore a green and white sheer gown. Both wore corsages of white gardenias.

Following the ceremony, a reception and dinner were held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride and groom left immediately after the reception for a short wedding trip to Wisconsin. Mrs. Brewer is employed at the Jewel Tea company and Mr. Brewer is a mechanic at the Brewer Motor Sales.

The following were out-of-town guests: Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. George Keyes of Algonquin; Mr. and Mrs. William Day of Warrensburg, Ill.; Mrs. Flora Cromer of Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cromer of Naperville; Mrs. Fred Cromer and daughter, Joyce, of Manhattan, Kan.; Miss Minnie Plagge of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plagge of Elgin; and Misses Edna and Irma Schwarz of Chicago.
