Camp Meeting at Barrington Park
Will Begin FridayBishop Epp to Be Evangelist at Sessions August 27 to September 5Barrington Park camp meeting will open at the usual grounds Friday evening for the initial program of a ten day series, August 27 to September 5 inclusive.Bishop G. E. Epp, D.D., of Naperville, bishop of the central area of the Evangelical church, will be the camp evangelist and will conduct Bible studies each morning after his arrival.Dr. John W. Holland, religious radio preacher over WLS will be present at the camp meetings Sunday afternoon and evening and will deliver two messages.Because of the camp meeting no services will be held at Salem Evangelical church during the next two Sundays. Instead, all members have been invited to meet at the camp grounds.Miss Lois Kramer who recently returned from Japan, will give the principal address on Missionary Day, Tuesday, August 31. Miss Kramer is reported an interesting speaker.Rev. and Mrs. W. Graham will again act as leaders of the young people at Barrington camp. Rev.
Graham will conduct a class in leadership training at 9:30 each morning, starting Monday, Aug.
30. "My Country and the Christian Ideal" will be his subject.
Mrs. Graham will have charge of the boys and girls at camp.Clifford Mommson will be the song leader, in which capacity he served last year, and Mrs. Mom-mson will play piano accompaniment to the singing.Ministers of the Chicago district will preach and aid in the work of the camp meeting.Barrington park has been owned and maintained by the Camp Meeting association since 1873 exclusively as a place for religious gatherings. The business end of the administration is managed by a board of trustees and membership privileges are open to all members of the Evangelical church.Residents of Barrington who are members of the executive board are H. J. Lagache, vice president; C. F. Miller, secretary; C. F. Plagge, treasurer; E. A.
Landwer, business manager, and

Here to Be Used in College ResearchMore than 100 gophers of ground squirrels are being collected alive this week from golf courses and cemeteries near Barrington and from the lawns of Jewel Park. The animals are being collected for scientific research experiments in the sex research laboratories of Professor Carl R. Moore of the Zoology department of the University of Chicago.James C. Plagge, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Plagge, 545 Grove avenue, and a student of Professor Moore, is collecting the gophers here. He is being aided in two shifts by William Fort and Julia Lamar, also of the university zoology department.The gophers will be used for operations and other experiments procedures, similar to the usual practice on guinea pigs and white rats. More than 2500 gophers have been collected in the Chicago region and used in this way during the past four years. An effort is being made to determine what natural conditions control the brief breeding season of gophers in the spring.A pure albino gopher, white with pink eyes and the first of its kind to be reported in this region, was captured in Jewel Park Tuesday.Coach Clark Sets Football Training
Date for BronchosPaul E. Clark, athletic director of the Barrington public high school, has issued the annual call for candidates for the Broncho football team. The first practice session will be Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 3 p. m.Charter Issued for Carpenters' LocalFollowing several organization meetings of carpenters in the Barrington and surrounding towns area, a charter was issued Tuesday, August 17, for a local to be known as Local 2014 of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. It is under the jurisdiction of the Chicago district council, an American Federation of Labor affiliate. The charter for the local union will be open for sixty days.Temporary officers have been elected and meetings will be held on the second and fourth Fridays of the month in the American Legion hall, located at 133 Park avenue, Barrington.Twenty-one members have been sworn into the local and 15 have signed up to join.To Start Issuing Court Summonses
on Property TaxesSeptember 15 Deadline for Real Estate; Justices to Take ActionPersons in Cuba township owing delinquent real estate and personal property taxes this week were the object of attention from the tax collection department established by the Lake county board of superior judges.Notices on delinquent real estate taxes were placed in the mail Saturday with the stipulation that arrangements must be made for payment by September 15 or foreclosure proceedings would be instituted.With the passing of the deadline of paying delinquent personal property taxes on Friday, August 10, letters were sent to justices of the peace in the various townships ordering them to start issuing summonses for hearing in judicial court.J. J. Claude and E. Gross, Cuba town justices, reported they would start this week to issue the summonses. They reported this week would be done in sufficient time each time to cover a full court day.Payment of delinquent taxes before court action is taken will save the property owner additional costs.The collection procedure is the same for both delinquent personal and real estate taxes. After the summonses are issued the cases will be heard in judicial court and judgments asked. Executions will then be filed.The property named in the judgment will be taken over by the Lake county sheriff of the county sale. Already one sale of real estate has been made by Allen J.
Nelson, Lake county treasurer.One hundred lots in a Fox Lake subdivision were sold for taxes, netting $2100. Nearly $100,000 has been paid in delinquent real estate taxes since April and approximately $25,000 has been collected on delinquent personal property taxes in the county.Mr. Claude estimated between 40 and 50 per cent of personal property tax delinquents in Cuba township have made payment.
The majority of those who have not, were in the village of Barrington.The Lake county tax collection department is not alone concentrating on real estate and personal property delinquencies, but is investigating wild entered for probate in the Lake county circuit court. A number are being served with citations to appear in court being paid before the estate is closed.The board of supervisors and county officials are attempting to collect approximately $3,500,000 in delinquent personal and real estate taxes, some of which go back many years.The program, it was learned, was instituted in fairness to those who pay their assessments each year and also to keep the annual tax rate down and to assist schools, municipalities and towns to keep out of indebtedness.Nearly $1,500,000 of the real estate tax delinquency on the tax books are on subdivision lots in various sections of the county.
Many of these taxes were started during the boom period around 1928 and have been delinquent ever since.Filling Vacancy Miss Dorothy Hughes, 215 Franklin street, is temporarily employed at the Anheuser-Baker, 119 E. Main street, during the absence of Miss Gladys Boyd, who is vacationing in the east.Several Village and Country Real Estate Transactions Are ReportedBuilding Permit Is Denied by Trustees at Public HearingA petition for a permit to remodel a structure for residential purposes was denied L. N. Morse, 610 Division street, at a public hearing held in the village hall Monday night. The motion to deny the petition was made by Trustee John H. Blanke and seconded by Trustee John Deschler.Mr. Morse presented a petition signed by residents in the neighborhood approving the remodeling, but the proposal was opposed by Stanley Haffner, James Haffner and A. E. Bateman, also residing near the Morse property. Trustees Blanke and Carroll, who live in the neighborhood, entered objections.The zoning ordinance was discussed by James Haffner, and after interpreting restrictions, the board voted to deny the permit. At present Mr. Morse is engaged in raising and selling chickens and his request for a permit was based on a plan to remodel his chicken building into living quarters.Robert Work has purchased a lot from Mrs. Mathilda Dorwaldt and has already started to build a house on it. The lot is at 503
S. Cook street.William Schottlage has purchased the old Kuhlman house on North avenue from the Gottlieb Kuhlman estate.Mrs. Rose Grimm has purchased the old Lager, homestead on Franklin street, and W. C. Fuch-chow has purchased the Lamy property at 123 North Elm street.
Both were bought from the Lamy estate. Mr. Fuchchow, while under contract to purchase, appeared before the village board with a petition that Ella between Franklin and Chestnut be re-zoned to permit use as business property. He desired to remodel the house into a funeral home, he explained.Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Schreiber have purchased the Charles Brin-tlinger house at 228 West Russell street as reported briefly in The Review last week. The house is of seven rooms and two baths. It was purchased from Mrs. Charles Brintlinger. This is one of the most desirable homes in the city having been built only a little more than a year ago.The university committee charged with the selection of a candidate for the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers scholarship at the University of Illinois for the academic year 1937-38 announced appointment of Arthur Lloyd Nicolai of Barrington, who will enter the university this fall as a freshman in the college of engineering.The applicant for this scholarship, which carries a remuneration of $400 for the year, must have ranked in the upper 25 per cent of his high school class and must submit satisfactory evidence that he is in good health and is of good character.Lloyd ranked third in a class of 55. He had no grade below 90 in four years of high school work and was strongly recommended in all the points which are considered by the committee in awarding the scholarship. His home is at 423 West Main street.White Sox Manager Arranges Date for Appearance LocallyA definite date for appearance here was made Tuesday by James "Jimmy" Dykes, manager of the Chicago White Sox, during a discussion with L. J. Miller, Barrington's number one Sox fan. The date was made by Mr. Dykes following the game Tuesday afternoon at which Mr. Miller and M.
H. Schreiber and son Bobby were present.The Sox manager had promised Mr. Miller earlier in the season that he would meet him in Barrington and meet his supporters. Although his time is occupied by many engagements, he assured him he would make every effort to be present.Mr. Miller planned to have him at a dinner meeting of the Lions club but because of the number of persons expressing a desire to be present, he indicated a place large enough to handle the group would be sought.Miss Peggy Wagner Wins Championship
at Country ClubMiss Peggy Wagner won the Barrington Hills country club women's golf championship in a closely contested match on the club grounds Tuesday. Her opponent in the finals was Mrs. William Schreiber.Rubbish Starts Fire Burning rubbish spring from a container started prairie grass on fire near the Hamilton Service station, corner of Hoch street and Northwest highway, Wednesday afternoon. The local fire department was called and kept the blaze under control.Lester Higgins Buys 100 Acre Farm From Menching EstateSeveral important real estate deals undertaken or completed during the last week include sales of both rural and village property in the Barrington district.Lester Higgins, residing four miles northeast of Barrington, has signed a contract to purchase from Menching estate the 100-acre farm on Mandank road just west of the Barrington road. This is one of the desirable rural home locations in the south part of Barrington township.Robert Work has purchased a lot from Mrs. Mathilda Dorwaldt
a house on it. The lot is at 503
S. Cook street.William Schottlage has purchased the old Kuhlman house on North

Propose Statute
For Lake SafetyWould Regulate Boat Renting; H. D. Kelsey Member of CommitteeA measure to restrict the number of passengers in rented row boats and to require that such boats be equipped with life preservers will be brought before the general assembly at its next session as the result of work done by the legislative committee of the Illinois County Officers association.This committee, including H.
D. Kelsey of Cuba township and John Thomas of Waukegan and other members, drafted the measure at a meeting in Peoria last Thursday and Friday. The committee has assurance that the plan will be placed on the call at the next session.Because of the large number of lakes and resorts in Lake and Mc-Henry counties, passage of this proposed bill would be of vital importance to those counties. Most of the persons drowned in northeastern Illinois this summer were riding in rented rowboats which upset. In several cases the boats were overloaded.The committee also prepared a measure which would result in a more equitable distribution of the sales tax receipts among counties of the state.Bears Players Home From National MeetEmmett Altengrub of Barrington and Francis Reuse of Palatine returned home Wednesday following competition in the national baseball tournament at Wichita, Kan., and a road trip exhibition games in the south. They are members of the Barrington Bears team.Both were members of the Elgin team that was sent to play for national honors. The team was distanced after two contests. Before returning home the team played exhibition games at Cairo, Belleville and Mount City, all in Illinois, and at Farmington, Mo.Attend Banquet William Behringer and Arthur Drover, employed by Lakeshore Electric Shop, attended a banquet Wednesday night at the Midway club in Chicago as guests of Gambill and company, distributors of Kelvinator refrigerators and other home appliances.The Barrington Lions club will be incorporated into the regular meeting held Monday evening.Man and Woman Are Drowned at Bangs
Lake in WaucondaFatalities Sunday Increase Total to 23; Man Saved at Dunes ParkA playful trick resulted in tragedy Sunday afternoon at Bangs Lake in Wauconda when a woman fell from a rowboat while attempting to avoid water splashed by her companion. Both were drowned.Miss Margaret Weiss, 32, of 2503 S. Wallace avenue, Chicago, was in a rowboat with James Pearson, 17, of 3016 S. Canal street, Chicago, on Bangs Lake when the tragedy occurred. They were part of a group that had come to Wau-conda to spend the day.The woman could be heard laughing as she tried to dodge the water. A moment later she had tumbled from the boat. Her companion, seeing her struggles, jumped in after her. Both went down.The bodies were recovered and volunteer firemen and a physician worked for two hours with a pulmonary resuscitator in having them brought back to life. A physician was rushed there by ambulance to assist.A double inquest was conducted by Dr. John L. Taylor, Lake county coroner, with a jury verdict of accidental death. The bodies were removed to Chicago for burial.While the two fatalities at Wau-conda killed the county's total to 23 as compared to 13 for all of 1936, Kelsey Wallace, of East Chicago Ind., narrowly escaped drowning in Lake Michigan at Dunes Park Sunday afternoon.After sinking beneath the waves in an effort to save two girls who became terrified when they evidently stepped into deep holes, Wallace was pulled ashore by Joseph Schreiber, 5424 S. Justine avenue, Chicago.Artificial respiration was successfully applied.Fire Committee and Trustees Talk Over
Department MattersVictor Rieke and Herman Kuhlman, appointed by the volunteer fire department to serve as a committee, met with village trustees Monday night to discuss questions on the operation and maintenance of the department.Questions of insurance, cost of operation on rural and village departments, and collections received on the rural apparatus were discussed. The committee will meet at a future date. Additional information is to be secured for a study of the audit made of the fire department's financial standing.Five hundred dollars was advanced by the village to underwrite the purchase of the rural truck when it was bought. Trustees are interested in having that repaid as well as figuring insurance and maintenance costs.Palatine Couple Is Hurt in CollisionHarold Paulsen, 23 years old, of S. Broadway street, Palatine, suffered a compound fracture of the right ankle, a fractured nose and abrasions about the face and his wife, 17 years old, suffered a deep laceration over the left eye as well as lacerations about the face when the car Mr. Paulsen was driving crashed into a truck on route 12 at the east outskirts of Palatine Wednesday evening.The truck was driven by Leonard Scharringhausen, an traveling salesman, and was traveling north on the state highway. At the point where the road divides, the old road leading into Palatine and the newer strip circling the town, Scharringhausen swung left and crashed into the truck.The Paulsens were traveling south and crashed into the right front and side of the loaded vehicle. The car was heavily damaged.Those injured were taken to the Palatine Community hospital by a passerby. Scharringhausen was unhurt.

Watching the '400'

Chief Ernest Baede at the left and Louis Miller at the right are watching the Minnesota "400" sweep through Barrington.
The train, which passed through shortly after 3:30 p. m., daily, was traveling at about 60 miles per hour when crossing Main street as shown above. A fast shutter camera stopped it cold.Boy Scout Troops Open Camporee at Caesar Lake FridayUnits in Northern District Will Hold Three-Day ProgramCaesar Lake on route 63, a mile and one-half southwest of Barrington, will be the scene of continued activity for three days starting Friday noon when boy scout troops from the northern district will arrive for a district meeting.
Baseball, swimming, football, and several guest troops will start pitching their tents for an annual camporee.Seven troops, those of Barrington and Palatine and including troops from Waukegan, Fox River Grove and McHenry, will assemble on the camping location Friday afternoon. They will set up tents and make camp. The remainder of the day will be spent in arranging details and at 7 o'clock the camp will officially open.Saturday will be devoted to a full schedule of events with contests being conducted. Points will be awarded the winners. If possible a board of review will be held sometime Friday, and then Saturday a court of honor will be held.Baseball, swimming, individual contests, signaling relays, fire by friction contests, pup-tent pitching contests, tree climbing contest, compass contest, antelope race, paper relay race, three-legged race, high jumping contest, firemen's carry relay, and other activities are planned.Those in charge of committee or various activities are as follows: Donald E. Kryger, camp advisor; Hugh H. Calkins, camp chief; Henry H. Lipofsky, assistant camp chief; Harold Calkins, aid for inspection; John Mann, aid for program and activities; E. Ericson, waterfront director; scout scouts will act as assistants; Elmer Gahlbeck, quartermaster; John Bell, train judge; Otto Miller, Herbert Berghorn, W. A. Fanning and W.
S. Humphreys, judges.The signal relay will prove to be interesting, according to present plans. One scout, with reader, will send a message to a scout stationed on opposite shore of lake. The receiver in turn will hand the message to a runner who will carry it across the lake to a pre-designated spot where he hands it to another. The last scout will then swim 50 yards to the finish line.
Winners will be determined by time and according to number of errors.H. H. Calkins, chairman of the executive council, and John L.
Bell, president of the Northwest Suburban council, have issued an invitation to the general public to attend the camp and witness the various activities and stunts. The camporee will start the fall and winter scouting campaign.Sunday morning will mark the closing of camp. Following breakfast the tents will be taken down and scouts dismissed. For those who remain church services will be arranged.Lions to Incorporate The Barrington Lions club will be incorporated into the regular meeting held Monday evening.Endorsed Hospital

Zurich grammar school and Elia township high school will open Tuesday, September 7.Rural schools in the community are not all opening on the same days. A number in Barrington township have set the date for Monday, August 30, while others will open Tuesday, September 7.Faculty members of the Barrington public high school will meet at a teacher's meeting Tuesday, September 7, the day preceding registration. They will meet with E. S. Smith, superintendent of schools, to arrange schedules and receive materials for distribution.An alphabetical schedule will be published next week in the Barrington Review and pupils will be advised to study it in order to learn the time to appear for registration.Registration day will be divided into hourly periods with students whose last names begin with certain letters required to appear in stated order.Fees for book rental, paper and supplies as charged each year were released also by Mr. Smith this week. They are as follows: kindergarten, $1.25; grades 1, 2, and 3, $1.75; grades 4 and 5, $2.12; grade 6, $2.25; grade 7, $2.50; grade 8, $2.75; high school, $3.50, plus a $1.50 activity fee.The activity fee in high school is a new feature this year. It was discussed by the student council last year and more than 90 per cent of the student body favored the plan.The fee will cover admissions to all athletic contests, assembly programs, dramatic club, glee and class performances and a subscription to the Broncho, school paper.
T. C. Hartford, who has developed the plan as faculty advisor, estimated the cost of all items for a year to each student would approxi-

BARRINGTON HILLS

Mrs. Harry Spencer Reno, who has been ill, returned home from the Evanston hospital the latter part of last week.

The Foster Smiths are at home again after vacationing in various sections. Mr. Smith returned Saturday from French Lick Springs, Ind. Mrs. Smith from Cleveland, O., and Renault has finished her summer at camp in Minnesota.

Tuesday at Barrington Hills saw the finals for the women's golf championship. Miss Peggy Wagner played against Mrs. William Schulse.

The last of the two-ball foursomes which have been so popular at the club for the past two months will be played. All interest now is centered on the County Fair which will be the title of the golf contest for Labor Day. Many unusual and fine prizes are being offered for this tournament.

Mrs. Robert Buckley and Mrs. Leslie Hansen entertained a group of North Shore women's golfers at Barrington Hills Tuesday.

Mrs. H. S. Hart and her niece, Mrs. Irwin Hartmeyer, spent a few days in Milwaukee last week, the guests of Mrs. Hart's sister, Mrs. John Lehn.

Irwin Hartmeyer, who has been a guest at Hartwood for two weeks, left last Sunday for his home in Cleveland. Mrs. Hartmeyer and her children, Gloria and John, are staying for another week.

Mrs. Frank Hecht Sr. gave a dinner party, which was also a birthday party, Wednesday night of this week.

A group of young people enjoyed a picnic supper at the Meadows with Miss Margaret Hecht as hostess Saturday night. The guests were entertained with a hay ride in genuine old-fashioned style, and with a harvest moon to add interest to the party was a great success.

Miss Sallie Halberg entertained them all with cocktails before the ride.

M. C. Beymer, who has been west on a business trip and at Estes Park with Mrs. Beymer for while, returned home last week. Mrs. Beymer and daughter are still away.

Mrs. Mollie Leffingwell of Evanston has been the guest of Mrs. Russell Pottingill for a few days.

Mrs. Russell Pottingill gave a Mrs. F. A. Record is at home again after 10 days in the Ravenswood hospital, and is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Mark Smith had a short visit last week from two friends, Miss Alice Cresson and Miss Elizabeth English, who were enroute to California from their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Payson and daughter Elizabeth, who have been guests of Mr. Payson's mother at Evanston on Cape Cod for three weeks, arrived home last Friday.

Mrs. Kinney Smith, Mrs. Payson's mother, was out over the week-end visiting at the Randolph Payson home.

Miss Barbara Hilton is home from camp. She had been at Hackensack, Minn. for two months. Gordon Cameron returned Sunday from a fishing trip at Monaca, Wis.

Mrs. Robert Fobes and daughter have returned to their home in Paris after a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Robert Buckley.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Ritzon, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. McAdoo and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Rench have gone to Plum Lake for a vacation of ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Halberg are entertaining the Soup club on Friday night.

Suburban Building Hits Slump in July

Building in the Chicago suburban region slumped in July as no manner of comparison will soften the fact. It went down in a month when it should have gone up, if the July of 1935 and 1936 may be taken as indicators. It dropped in comparison with June of this year and with July of last year, though in every other month of this year suburban building has been greatly in excess of the corresponding month of last year.

The figures to be compared are $2,486,729 for July, 1937; $3,380,962 for July, 1936; and $3,356,452 for June, 1937. Thus a falling off of nearly $900,000 in the amount of permits issued in comparison with last year or last month.

The only mitigating fact may be found in a couple of unusual jobs for which permits were issued in July, 1937, giving that month an exceptional total. These were the Wilbost store in River Forest, for which the permit was $610,000, and the church of St. Athanasius in Evanston, which cost $150,000. But even if these are deducted from the total of July a year ago, the indication is still that there is less building this year in July than there was last year.

The classes of building in which the losses occurred are apparent. Last year in the month of July 175 new homes were started for which permits were issued to the amount of $1,572,743. This year more homes were started but much cheaper ones on an average, that is 251 homes to cost $1,435,854. The average cost of homes has been receding for some time, as this survey previously has pointed out. Repairs, alterations and additions to homes in July amounted to $255,589, which compares with July 1936 permits for these purposes amounting to $399,505. In July a year ago a considerable number of industrial permits were taken out and these amounted to $739,775, while this July the industrial construction reported was only $250,583.

The bright side of the picture is that home building is still proceeding on a grand scale. Though the amount contracted for in dollars and cents fell off a little in July as compared with last year, one may find satisfaction in the fact that 1531 families have built suburban homes this year while in the corresponding months of last year only 647 families built. The cost of the homes for the seven months of this year was $11,905,467 and last year $6,133,538.

Details of the survey are as follows:

Canning Assured by Heavy Tomato Crops

This year's tomato yield which gives promise of being the largest crop in a decade will provide Barrington homemakers with the opportunity to can those cans in the basement that have been empty since berry and cherry prices soared to heights prohibitive to the average home canner.

The early tomatoes in Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio have been harvested and mid-season and late varieties are appearing in markets. These, home economists declare are more desirable and usually much cheaper than earlier sorts for canning purposes.

This year it is expected that millions of bushels will be utilized by housewives for tomato juice, chili sauce, catsup, and as plain canned tomatoes.

At the city-owned Benton Harbor cash-to-grower market in southwestern Michigan sales to truckers and shippers are expected to total more than three-fourths of a million packages within the next few weeks.

Varities offered at that point as well as in the Barrington community which are highly desirable for the housewife are John Baer, Chalk's Jewel and Stone. A much prized tomato that has gained popularity for its attractive round, even shape and its ability to hold up well under canning is the Marglobe, a product of the U. S. department of agriculture. This year's tomato crop for the nation as a whole is expected to be greater than all the crops during the seven-year period from 1926 to 1932 and in the middle west in 19 years.

Farmer Attacked by Enraged Bull Dies

Arthur L. Johnson, 50-year-old farmer residing on the state line road, north of Hebron, was fatally injured on his farm Sunday morning when he was attacked by a bull during milking time.

He died about eight o'clock of a fractured skull and other injuries, received when the enraged animal picked him up with his horns and hurled him against the ceiling rafters, then allowing him to fall to the concrete floor below.

Johnson and his two sons, Keith and Lyle, had driven the cows into the barn preparatory to milking about 5:30 p. m. and the bull was being driven into his pen when he turned on Johnson.

His son Keith drove the bull into its pen with a farm tool. A physician was called but the injured man died two hours later without regaining consciousness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon.

Fall Favorable to Seed Shaded Areas

By The MASTER GARDENER

Most every gardener has certain shaded areas in the lawn where it is difficult to get a satisfactory turf. Of course, one can always resort to ground covers, but in many situations, turf is much more desirable.

Try seeding such shaded areas in the fall—preferably about mid-August. Where the shade is due to deciduous trees, this practice is particularly desirable, since the young grass plants get a great deal more light as the leaves begin to fall in the autumn, and also have a chance to make a vigorous growth before the leaves appear in the spring.

But before seeding, give attention to two important factors:

1. See that drainage is good. Soil under trees has a tendency to remain wet during rainy periods, because evaporation is slow. This causes it to become very compact and with the advent of warm weather the soil bakes and great cracks appear, resulting in the extreme—a shortage of moisture.

If drainage is defective, remedy this by installing suitable tile drainage. And likewise, if the texture of the soil is not good, correct this.

2. Remember that in shaded areas lack of sufficient plant food is often one of the most important factors responsible for failure to grow a good lawn. The surrounding trees take all available plant food and the grass suffers. Both trees and lawn surface should be fed, but if you cannot feed the trees by August 16, it is best to delay this task until the trees are dormant, in fall, or early winter.

To feed trees, make holes in a circle under the spread of the branches. The holes should be about 3 inches in diameter and 12 to 18 inches deep. Fill the holes with a mixture of half complete plant food and half soil. Then water. In figuring the requirements of a tree, allow one pound to each inch of circumference of the trunk, measuring the trunk 4 feet above the ground.

Then feed the lawn area, applying 4 pounds of complete plant food per 100 square feet, watering in well.

Several days later, loosen the surface soil thoroughly with a rake, and seed the area with a shade-tolerant grass. Poa trivialis is one of the best; Chewings' Fescue is also desirable. Rake in well or cover with screened soil or pulverized peat moss. Rake in surface moist until the seed has germinated.

As fall advances, remove fallen tree leaves from time to time, as they smother young grass.

List Winners of PMA Farm Contest

District 9 had two new champion gold medal farms whose identical ratings tie them for first place over 27 other farms of this district entered in the fourth annual Chicago's Neatest Dairy Farm project for 1937, sponsored by the Pure Milk Association.

One of these was the 120-acre Holstein farm of William E. Minooka, Ill.; the other was the 156-acre Holstein farm of George Damach, Hampshire, Ill. Both of these members received gold medals, both were eligible to compete with 14 gold medal winners of other districts for the honor of being selected grand champion pure milk farm in Chicago.

Second highest ranking farm in Dist. 9 was the 280-acre Brown Swiss farm of Mrs. John Whitlock, Minooka, Ill., which has been selected as the silver medal pure milk farm.

The bronze medal, for third place in this district went to Henry Lees, Route 2, Maple Park, Ill. for his 224-acre farm and 50 head of Holsteins and Guernseys.

All four medal winners will receive, in addition, "Award of Merit" plaques inasmuch as their farms were rated over 80 per cent in neatness and cleanliness.

Each year the Pure Milk Association recognizes with gold, silver and bronze medals those of its 14,500 members who have the neatest dairy farms. Selection is based upon a possible 100 per cent. Rating in neatness, with 50 per cent of the score going for the general neatness of the dairy farm as a whole. Neatness and cleanliness of the dairy barn and herd count for 20 per cent; neatness and cleanliness of the milk house, milk utensils, and other dairy equipment count 20 per cent; and neatness of all other buildings on the dairy farm score 10 per cent.

Pure Milk Neatest Dairy Farm Award Won by Earl Kane

Grand Championship Farm Is Located at Mundelein; Receive Trip

The 140-acre Kane farm is located two miles south of Mundelein, on route 59-A. Not elaborate landscaping nor other decoration, but the exceptional neatness of the whole farm, the immaculateness of the milk house and equipment, the cleanliness of the 32-cow purebred Guernsey milk herd, were the things that won the 1937 title for this farm. Mr. Kane was the Gold Medal winner of district 7 in last year's nearest farm project, but under the rules of the contest could not again be district winner. However, because his score in the preliminary judging equaled that of the new district 7 champion, he was eligible to compete for the grand championship. The prize for this is an 8-day trip to Yellowstone National Park and Colorado for Mr. and Mrs. Kane as guests of the Pure Milk association.

Mr. Kane has been a dairy farmer for twenty-one years, and has been a member of the Pure Milk association, Prairie View local, since it was organized. The new home farm was selected from a final field of nineteen as Milk gold medal farms. Each year the Pure Milk association recognizes with gold, silver and bronze medals those of its 14,500 members who have the nearest dairy farms. The gold medal winners are those farms receiving the highest rating in each of the fifteen districts of the association, which comprise 33 counties in northern Illinois, southern Wisconsin, and northern Indiana.

In reaching the decision to award the grand championship to the new home farm of Earl H. Kane, the three final judges, Dr. H. A. Ruehe of the University of Illinois, Professor L. C. Thomas of the University of Wisconsin, and Professor W. Gregory of Purdue university, inspected all gold medal farms.

Collins and Berlin were in the washroom of a Lake Zurich tavern July 25 when a quarrel developed that ultimately led to the death of Collins, according to an investigation carried on by the Lake county sheriff's office.

Following an argument over 47 back runs which Berlin claimed was due him from Collins, the latter was alleged to have slashed at Berlin with a jack knife. Berlin pushed Collins, according to the report, causing him to fall and bump his head on the washroom floor. Although he did not show immediate signs of suffering from the fall, he became seriously ill later and died August 19.

Local Man Is Third in Shooting Honors

W. R. Winteringham, 521 S. Hough street, who is competing in the national trapshooting meet at Vandalia, Ill., this week, finished third in the North America clay target championship Tuesday. Phil Miller of French Lick, Ind., was first and R. C. Coffey of Orlando, Fla., was second.

All three were tied in the target shoot with a score of 300 out of 300 and in the shoot off Mr. Winteringham missed on his first 25.

He was also a member of a western team of 10 selected shooters to oppose 10 from eastern states and led the group by breaking 200 targets. The western outfit broke 194 out of 200 and the eastern broke 187 out of 200.

Members of the western team and their scores were: W. Winteringham, Barrington, Ill., 200; Hale Jones, Alton, Ill., 195; Tommy Lovett, Houston, Tex., 199; Harlow Houn, Jewell, Ia., 196; R. A. King, Wichita Falls, Tex., 196; J. Derdosi, St. Paul, Minn., 198; E. A. "Slim" Coming to Catlow Theatre as Week-End Feature

"They Gave Him a Gun" Here Friday: "Slave Ship" Opens Wednesday

With Spencer Tracy, Gladys George and Franchot Tone in the leading roles, "They Gave Him a Gun" comes to the Catlow theatre Friday for a two day showing.

Tracy is seen as Fred Willis, circus Barker, while Franchot Tone plays the small town bookkeeper, Jimmy Davis, who turns racketeer following the war. Gladys George is the Red Cross nurse, Rose Duffy, whom they both love.

It's quite an accomplishment these days for a film producer to discover one occupation which his hero hadn't been pictured.

And that's what Warner Bros. have done in the case of "Slim," the interesting and exciting melodrama which has its first local showing Sunday and Monday.

"Slim" is a story of the colorful, perilous, touch-and-go lives of high-tension lineamen, those sturdy lads who put up steel towers across the land and string the wires that carry electrical power over the mountains and deserts.

A robust story of the old West from the pen of Zane Grey brings Larry Crabbe back to the screen in another of his famous "Nevada" roles in "Fortuna River," which comes Tuesday to the Catlow.

Double featured with "Fortuna River" is "The Great Gambini," with Akim Tamiroff and Reginald Marsh, John Trent and Reginald Denny.

William Faulkner, noted author of "Fylon," "Sanctuary," and many other widely read novels, wrote the story of "Slave Ship," drama of the sea which opens Wednesday for a three day engagement at the Catlow with Warner Baxter and Wallace Berry as co-stars.

Faulkner based his story on the novel by George S. King, "The Last Slave," which deals with the adventures last voyage of a slave-running schooner in the early 1800's. Sam Hellman, Lamar Trotti and Gladys Lehman wrote the screen play for the film.

Jim McMillen and Claybound Meet at Round Lake Arena

Postponed from last Friday to this Friday because of rain, the most important wrestling match ever presented in Lake county, between Jim McMillen, outstanding contender for the world's heavyweight championship, will headline another all-star pro program in the Round Lake Open-Air arena.

Hailed as the Joe Louis of wrestling by wrestling promoters and fans everywhere throughout the United States, the sensational colored star is being groomed for a match with the world's champion, and McMillen will be the final and supreme test of the great Negro's true ability.

Supporting the main event, but equaling it in talent and color, a semi-windup features a thirty minute time limit match between Bobby Brans, sensational blond heavyweight Adonis, in his first appearance since months spent against the great Iowa senator's king, Fred Grubmeyer. Grubmeyer is undefeated in several straight matches here, and his go with the popular Brans should be a real "natural."

Three classy preliminary bouts round out another great card. In one Pat Kelly, fiery Irish sensation, will make his Round Lake debut against "Bully Boy" Kogut, Canadian heavyweight wrestling champion. Promoters promise fans a real treat in Kelly, one of the finest wrestlers of the day.

Another thriller matches Mike

London, bearded Californian, against "Whitney" Wahlberg, handsome blond Milwaukeean. Wahlberg stands only five feet five but is one of the finest built of all light-heavyweights and made a big hit a week ago at Round Lake in his match with "Wild Bill" Brooks.

The final match introduces two local youths in their pro debut. One is Howie Day, Abbot Laboratory chemist who has been coaching the Waukegan YMCA and Great Lakes Naval Station wrestlers for some time. He will go against Johnny Stanek, husky Libertyville farmer, who shows promises as a wrestler.

"SLOW FIRE" is as destructive as Fast Fire

Firemen are not as familiar with "Slow Fire" as they are with Fast Fire. But any builder or architect can tell you about the damage "Slow Fire" causes. "Slow Fire" results from the combination of moisture, air and warmth. It rots roof beams and studs, loosens plaster and weakens the structural soundness of a house.

Why take a chance on "Slow Fire"? A new fire-safe Barrett Asphalt Shingle Roof will protect your house against both "Slow Fire" and Fast Fire.

NO DOWN PAYMENT THREE YEARS TO PAY

We are certified to apply genuine Barrett Asphalt Shingles. A three-year payment plan enables you to enjoy the advantages of a Barrett Roof while you pay for it.

Jewel Tea Co. Nets

$2.74 a Share, Mid-Year Report Reveals

Jewel Tea Co., Inc. reports net earnings for the 28 weeks ending July 17, 1937 of $767,073.55 or $2.74 per share on the 280,000 shares issued after provision for federal taxes, depreciation and all other operating charges but without provision for possible surpluses on undistributed earnings.

In the same weeks of 1936 earnings were $875,851.45 or $3.13 per share. Net earnings for the 53 weeks ending July 17, 1937 were $1,685,322.91 or $6.02 per share compared with $1,507,350.12 or $4.45 per share in the 52 weeks ending July 11, 1936. Lower profits in the current period are due principally to rising costs of raw materials and increased expenses, particularly wages and taxes.

The proportion of the sales dollar going to government and workmen is increasing and may be expected to increase further.

Sales—Total sales for the 28 weeks amounted to $12,387,739.17 compared with $10,860,787.70 for the same period in 1936, an increase of 13.75 per cent.

Working Capital—Net working capital amounted to $4,534,334.30 and the ratio of current assets to current liabilities was 3.62 to 1.

On May 1, 1937, the warehouse in Chicago, which has been occupied under lease as a distribution center for the Jewel Food Stores was purchased from Loblaw Groceries, Inc. Payment included the assumption of lease liabilities for various store locations. This property consists of an eight-story fireproof warehouse with a single story garage attached, and has proved well adapted for supplying the 104 self-service stores operated in the Chicago area.

Operating Expenses—Expenses are 12.55 per cent higher than in 28 weeks of 1936 and the increase occurred largely in three items—payroll, sales promotion expenses and taxes. Payroll costs are higher as a result of increased sales and consequent increases in commissions paid, the employment of more people, and increases in the rates of wages and salaries paid. Upward adjustments in pay rates during the 28 weeks of 1937 cost $60,330.23 and on an annual basis will amount to $225,514.12. Further pay rate adjustments already approved and to cost $81,610.88 per annum, will become effective in the last half of 1937. Much of the sales promotional expense has gone to members of the organization in the form of awards for improved performance and is in some measure responsible for the increase in sales.

Expenses and losses due to floods in the Ohio River Valley and at other points amounting to $15,633.91 were charged to expense.

Taxes—The total amount or accrued for all taxes in the first 18 weeks of 1937, was $452,450.55 compared with $460,079.94 in the same weeks of 1936, an increase of 13.75 per cent. Social security taxes alone, cost $82,665.59.

Three Men Injured in Three-Car Crash

Three men were cut and bruised in a three-car collision on route 60 north of Waukegan Sunday afternoon. Erwin Kappes, 2143 N. Tripp avenue, Chicago, accompanied by his wife, was driving south on route 60 when his car sideswiped an automobile driven by C. C. Carlson, 2617 W. Sixty-first street, Chicago.

The Kappes car then collided with a car driven by Frank Semple, 355 Oak street, Elmhurst. Kappes, Semple and John Kampe, 500 Foster avenue, Chicago, were treated for cuts and bruises at the Waukegan emergency hospital.

Need for the "Comforter" In Seventeenth-century New York, Kachins demanded that a "comforter," as well as a physician, be called when a person was very sick. Invariably dressed in black, he "comforted" the patient throughout the long hours of the night by singing mournful hymns, reading sad parts of the Scriptures and discussing such subjects as death and the devil.—Collier's Weekly.

Cars Crash Head-On, Three Are Injured

When the driver of a south-bound car became confused on the turn on U. S. route 12, a mile north of Palatine, Saturday night, three persons were severely injured as their machine crashed head-on into another at that point.

John Gould, 5533 Rice street, Chicago, driver of the car; Ray Koelci, father of the driver, and Miss Vanetta Overstreet, 1001 Parkside avenue, Chicago, were the three injured. Gould's car crashed into one driven by John Koelci, 1737 Potomac avenue, Chicago. Neither Koelci nor his five passengers were injured.

The Gould persons were enroute to Chicago following a picnic at Fox River Grove Saturday. When they approached the point north of Palatine where the road swings to the east, the driver became confused, starting to make the turn and then straightening out. The old route leaves the main highway at that intersection and continues into Palatine.

Koelci had stopped for the stop sign and when Gould swung his car back into that lane, the machines crashed head-on.

The injured were taken by ambulance to the Palatine Community hospital where it was learned Miss Overstreet suffered three deep lacerations on the head. Both Goulds suffered chest injuries and shock.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, 2137 Douglas boulevard, Chicago, were injured about the head when their machine slipped over on Northwest highway near Cuba Monday afternoon. It had skidded and rolled over when Mr. Wilson attempted to bring it back on the pavement.

Mrs. Wilson received a deep laceration on the head and also on one hand. Her husband also was cut about the head as well as receiving numerous bruises.

The Wilsons were enroute to Lake Geneva, Wis., for a vacation and were driving a new car with slightly over 600 miles on the speedometer. The machine was reduced to junk.
