Forty Hours Devotion Will Start at St. Anne Church Next Sunday

The service known as the "forty hours devotion" will open in St. Anne church Sunday morning at the ten o'clock mass, and continue until the solemn closing Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Father P. J. Lyons, pastor of St. Anne, announced. The senior choir assisted by the boys' surplice choir will render music.

Public adoration will continue all day Sunday with "Holy hour" in the evening at 7:30. Again all day Monday and Tuesday the church will remain open and especially prepared for all who wish to spend an hour or part of it in public or private veneration. Tuesday night the services will be marked with special solemnity. Prayers of adoration, reparation and consecration will be followed by a sermon by the Rev. J. A. Farrell of Chicago.

After the sermon, children representing the litany will form in procession with the visiting clergy, Rev. J. J. Jennings of Crystal Lake will carry the blessed sacrament. Invocations and prayers of the litany will be chanted under the direction of Rev. E. V. Hoover, Mus. D. of Chicago, concluding with benediction.
