

Hold Conference at Cary Methodist Episcopal Church

CARY.—The first conference of the year was held at the Cary Methodist church Tuesday with district superintendent, Dr. Stevenson of Chicago, in charge. The meeting was followed by a reception for Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Jeffery, who have been returned to Cary for another year.

Parents of Son
Mr. and Mrs. John Cowan are the parents of a son, John Alexander, born Saturday at the City hospital at Akron, O. Mrs. Cowan will be remembered as Edna Boomer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Boomer.

Daughter Is Born
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zange, now residing at Algonquin, are the parents of a baby daughter, Donna Mae, born Wednesday morning at the Sherman hospital in Elgin.

Aunt Dies Suddenly
Mrs. Margaret Prinzinger of Peoria, an aunt of Mrs. Francis Cogan and well-known in Cary, died suddenly while enroute by train to California to visit her brother, who is seriously ill. Funeral services will be held in Peoria Saturday.

Personals
The Lutheran Ladies Aid of the Holy Cross church was entertained in the home of Mrs. Carl Reber Wednesday afternoon. A large attendance was reported.
The American Legion Raymond Washer post 276 will observe Ar-mistic Day at the Cary Country club Thursday, Nov. 11.

The high school P.T.A. will meet at Crystal Lake Community high school Wednesday, Nov. 10. Hostesses and host for the evening will be Mrs. Alfred Schuldt, Mrs. May Post, Mrs. Joseph Plik, Mrs. G. Rosen and Mr. and Mrs. F. Mann.

The Tuesday evening "bridge club" was entertained in the home of Mrs. J. O. Flood. High scores were made by Mrs. Russell Allen, Mrs. Joseph Dianis and consolation to Mrs. Watson Lowe.

Work has been started on the rebuilding and remodeling of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smeaton, recently badly damaged by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Granholm of Joliet and the latter's sister, Marie Franke, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kiddle at Crystal Lake to pay their respects to James Kiddle Jr., who was killed in an auto accident at Urbana Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Padalik, son George, and Mrs. F. Kalabak of Chicago, attended the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. J. Hyber, in Racine, Wis., Wednesday, returning Thursday evening.

The Cary Woman's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Otto Grosse at the Northwest Farm, Friday afternoon, Nov. 12. Otto Grosse will be the speaker of the afternoon. This week, Mrs. Thomas Ventris and her committee are conducting a rummage sale at the village hall.

Mrs. L. Piva entertained the members of the C. C. club at her home on West Main street Wednesday afternoon. On Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. B. Weaver, members of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church gave a miscellaneous surprise shower in honor of Mrs. Stanley Jeffery. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Jeffery was presented with a purse and other gifts.

Mrs. William Wascher attended a luncheon bridge Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Benjamin Merkle in Chicago.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nowicki attended a dance at Logan Square, Masonic temple in Chicago Friday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Asa L. Crabtree, Richard Grantham, Iona McCallum and sons David and Dale attended a Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Crabtree at Roselle, in honor of the birthdays of their daughter, Ardell and David McCallum.

Mrs. Verdon Stewart entertained the Pinocchio club Wednesday afternoon.

Cards received from James Stewart, son Vernon and Charles Newbold, from Batavia, Wis., stating unusual weather is being enjoyed.
