Miss Elaine G. Gilbert
Bride of William Dowell

The Baptist church was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday evening when Miss Elaine G. Gilbert, daughter of Mrs. Florence Gilbert of Barrington, became the bride of William Dowell of Wauconda.

Rev. Charles R. Drussel officiating using the impressive single ring service.

The church was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and white chrysanthemums. Proceeding the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Charles Thies sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" with Miss Florence Thies at the organ. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march.

The bride was lovely in a white satin gown; her finger tip veil was held in place by a band of pearls and crystals and she carried an arm bouquet of white pom-pom chrysanthemums. Her brother, Raymond Gilbert, gave her in marriage.

Miss Charlotte Adams, a cousin of the bride, who served as bridesmaid, wore blue silk net, a headband of orange blossoms, and carried pink carnations.

Doona Mae Davlin and Virginia Passfield, two small nieces of the groom, were pretty flower girls in their yellow and pink taffeta dresses. Melvin Passfield, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer. He was dressed in blue and white. Raymond Dowell served his brother as best man.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. R. H. Adams, the bride's aunt, with 60 relatives and close friends present. Out-of-town guests came from Chicago, Elgin, Highland Park, North Chicago, Crystal Lake, and Wauconda.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowell will be spending this week motoring in Kentucky and on their return they will be at home at 316 E. Russell street.
