

O. S. Caesar Wins "Fruits of Labor" Golf Tournament

Men of Barrington Hills C. C.
Compete for Great
Variety of Prizes

O. S. Caesar was the low net winner in the annual Fruits of Labor golf tournament held at Barrington Hills Country Club on Labor Day. Mr. Caesar's score was 75-9-66.

His choice of prizes was a wire haired terrier donated by S. F. White. Each person who participated in the tournament donated a prize and therefore everyone won a prize. The low net winner had first choice, the second low had second choice, etc.

Some of the other low net winners, their prizes and the donors, in order of their scores were as follows: J. W. Thompson, a leather duff bag donated by V. C. P. Dreake; J. A. Wilson, a registered bull calf donated by Arthur Croxson; K. K. Kulekbocker, a thermos picnic outfit donated by C. J. Whipple; E. L. Drake, a cord of hard wood donated by H. R. Gray; C. J. Whipple, a leather duff bag donated by John Gardner; O. S. Seaver, an electric toaster donated by J. A. Cunningham; R. P. Heister, 16 1/2 white mallow ducks donated by R. W. Renham; R. Hillton, a steel measuring tape donated by Arvid Wold; S. B. White, a pig donated by H. R. Schulz.

In the junior limit of the tournament H. H. Cline, who has won the Kentucky State Amateur championship twice, was low net winner with a score of 71-5-69.

Mr. Cline's score on the first nine of the Barrington Hills course was 32; four under par, but he failed to keep up the pace and shot the second nine in 39.

W. E. Webb Jr. was second in the junior flight with a score of 76-5-71.

Two plays were left over after all prizes had been selected. Instead of just giving them away, two contests were arranged: one was set free as a prize for the person who caught him. Howard Heister made the catch. The other was by Bill Webb in a driving contest. The pigs were left over because some members who donated prizes were unable to participate in the tournament.

L. S. VanWinkle Is Taken Seriously Ill Wednesday Morning

L. S. VanWinkle, 501 S. Cook street, new member of the Barrington public school faculty, was taken seriously ill Wednesday morning when he suffered a spasmic condition induced by hay-fever and asthma. Although suffering from the ailments, he had been present to help register pupils Tuesday but was unable to do so Wednesday.

A call was made at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning for the inhalator machine. He was supplied with oxygen for nearly an hour before a definite improvement was noticed. Mr. VanWinkle was placed under the care of a special nurse.

Everything in Readiness for The Review's Cooking School

Lock the doors and come to town. The Review's motion picture cooking school entitled "Star in My Kitchen" will be the real community attraction for three days at the Catlow theatre starting September 22.

This fascinating and different cooking school is open entirely free to every woman in town, and the Review as well as Barrington merchants extend this invitation to join in the home-making lessons and enjoy entertainment for at least one day.

The motion picture cooking school will be a practical rally of home-makers to contribute fresh perspective for the "same old job," the monotonous day-in-and-day-out job, yet the most important business in the world. Just as men have their annual conventions, where they listen to lectures from specialists, local women will have their convention to consider home-making problems.

Just as fresh inspiration for the old job is one of the by-products of the familiar cooking school, which presents a lecturer in a model kitchen, so are new ideas and keen incentive born in the film class for home-makers, with its novel approach and modern setting. No "false-front" camera-beautiful kitchens satisfied these specialists. They insisted on working in complete, compact, modern kitchens, which actually reflect modern scientific ingenuity and careful planning than any living room.

Recognizing the demands of home experts, the producers of "Star in My Kitchen" signed all-star kitchens, with an all-star cast, adding a continual procession of close-ups, so that every seat in Catlow theatre is a good seat for this amazingly-pictured home-making course.

Everyday happenings have been dramatized in the plot of "Star in My Kitchen." Behind the sparkling humor and suspense that are so necessary to screen stories was a deliberate plan—an ambitious determination to carry instruction, inspiration, and worthwhile home news to women in every community.

The camera took its time and it took its close-ups, so that every

40th Anniversary Celebration of Fire Department Friday

Henry T. Schroeder Will Be Unit's Guest of Honor at Steak Fry

Members of the Barrington volunteer fire department will celebrate its 40th anniversary at a steak fry in the camp grounds Friday night, according to Victor Rieke, department chief, who is directing the affair.

Walter Ahrens, chairman, Kenneth Grebe and Orville Wende comprise the committee making arrangements.

H. T. Schroeder, who is a charter member of the department and has served consecutively for 40 years, will be the guest of honor. Walter Schroeder, department secretary, and Sam Landwer will prepare a short historical resume of the department since its inception in 1898.

The volunteer fire department, it was learned, was first organized when the water system was installed by the village 40 years ago. At just that time the unit was not under the sponsorship of the village but was an independent organization.

In addition to celebrating its anniversary, the department is making plans for an amateur night show to be held at the public school auditorium November 4 and 5. Chief Rieke has not as yet appointed committees for the program. The amateur night will consist of local talent which has successfully passed previous try-outs. Prizes will be awarded winners, it was learned.

A series of meetings are now being conducted by representatives of the department and the Barrington Countrywide association fire committee headed by Paul W. Trier for the purpose of improving the service in the rural area. One plan for improvement is being considered which would permit telephone operators to sound the fire alarm without having to ask permission from an official of the fire department. Having to obtain permission first is required at present by the village in order to prevent unnecessary expense from false alarms and minor grass fire calls.

Will Attend Convention
A. L. Wiedenbeck, village treasurer, will attend the three-day sessions of the Municipal League convention to be held at Rockford starting Tuesday.

Plenty of Jobs Are Available for Girls

The demand for girls and women to do housework, cleaning, etc., is brisk in this community at the present time. Fire help wanted advertisements asking for women, girls or couples, appear in The Review as well as elsewhere this week. Last week seven appeared, whereas only one or two situations wanted ads appear each week. This is a direct result of the employment condition which prevailed a year ago.

Will He Repeat?

"Will" William Tonne (shown above) win the hoop contest as he did last year? "Will" Mrs. John Grebe's repeat her cloth ripping triumph of last year? "Will" Larry Frank and Herbert Pohlman remain the egg-throwing champions? were among the questions asked as the program for the 21st annual Lake Zurich day picnic at Opatry's Grove in Fox River Grove, got underway this morning with horseshoe pitching contests, and softball games between the country and town boys, single girls and married women, and single men and married men.

Following a picnic lunch this noon, contests for all ages, from boys and girls under six years of age, up through the adult class were underway. In addition to the athletic contests, the games committee, composed of John Fink as chairman, J. L. Clements and Albert Kunde, arranged a number of interesting puzzles. A concert by the Elia township high school band was given shortly after lunch.

The picnic will be concluded this evening with dancing.

Following is the list of other committees arranging the program: Arthur Anderson, general chairman; program, J. L. Clements, ch. and Miss Marie Lohman; music, Melvin Elide, ch., William Luers and Otto Giese; prizes, Eugene Frank, ch., August Kaigle and Harold Giese; games, Rev. B. Freese, ch., Lee Smith, C. H. Rudinski and Wilbur Buddemeier; advertising, C. H. Rudinski, ch., and Walter Prohm; ice cream, Russell Smetzinger, ch., Bert Harris, Stanley Davis, Ray Nightingale and Joseph Schweda.

Girls' baseball, Miss Marie Lohman and Miss Katherine Jayne; baseball, country boys, George Meyer, city boys, Arthur Leuthener and Dale Bais; baseball, single men, Harold Giese, married men, Earl Lohm; umpire, for all games, H. L. Wemer; horseshoe, John Gehrke, ch., and James Weber; tickets, William Buhr.

Will Ask County Aid to Have Road Fixed

Village trustees and local political leaders will meet with County Commissioner William B. Erickson at Mt. Prospect Monday night to discuss the possibility of improving Dundee avenue south of Hillside avenue. Conditions of that road were discussed at a meeting held by the trustees Tuesday night and it was decided to ask for county aid.

A macadam surface road would be desirable instead of the present stretch of gravel from Hillside to route 63, trustees felt. The section is a county-aid road, although in the village limits, and it is hoped that some program can be worked out at the meeting with Mr. Buse to have it improved.

Love Scene From "Star in My Kitchen"

Of course, a real dramatic story like "Star in My Kitchen." The Review's cooking school picture, would not be complete without romance, and every woman will thrill to love scenes like this one between Mike Anders and Dedee Abot. The film is to appear at the Catlow theatre September 22, 23, 24.

Enrollments Reach New Record Totals At School Opening

Increase Noted By All Heads of Barrington and Lake
Zurich Schools

Enrollment figures for schools in this area reached new highs in all cases, in many instances showing an increase where a drop had been anticipated. The total at the Barrington public high school, consisting now of 10th, 11th and 12th grades, is 210 and a number of additional pupils are expected to swell that total.

Due to the change of departments this year, with the 9th grade, or freshman class, grouped with the junior high school and the sixth grade placed down with the intermediate department, comparisons of increases cannot be made. E. S. Smith, superintendent of Barrington public schools, pointed out.

The senior class at B.H.S. has 56 members, the junior class 78 and the sophomore group 76. T. C. Hestford, principal of the high school, reported.

In junior high school the total registrations compiled by Willard Watson, principal of the junior high school, amounted to 171. The ninth grade has 53 pupils, eighth grade 46 and seventh grade 62.

For the primary and intermediate grades the registration amounted to 385 pupils, or a grand total of 766 for all grades in the grammar and high schools. This figure exceeds the 1937 grand total by 43.

A large increase was found in kindergarten where 41 children started school.

Following is the enrollment by grades: first, 47; second, 54, third, 62; fourth, 61; fifth, 54; sixth, 66. J. L. Clements, principal of Elia township high school, reported the greatest enrollment in history as that school started in its 11th year of service last week. The total 134 and contains the largest freshman class ever registered, 46 members. The enrollment in 1937 was 121.

The sophomores at Elia number 34, the juniors 22 and seniors 32. Sister Mary Dulcetta, principal of St. Anne parochial school in Barrington, also reported an increase, 58 pupils registering for the fall term Wednesday. In 1937 the number was 51. Sister Dulcetta stated there were a number of other pupils registered but they had not appeared when the first figures were taken.

Car Cushions Burned

The rear seat cushion and upholstery were damaged when a fire of undetermined origin was started in the car owned by Erickson of Rogers Park and parked on West Main street Sunday night. Mr. Erickson and his party had gone to the movie and had locked the car. When the fire department answered the alarm, it was necessary to break a window to extinguish the fire. Damage was slight.

Townsend Club Meeting

A regular meeting of members of Townsend Club No. 1 will be held at Catlow's hall on West Station street Friday evening, Sept. 9 at 8 p. m. The evening is cordially invited to attend, according to those in charge of arrangements.

Woman's Club to Grant Loans to 3 College Students

Announcement that three Barrington young people will receive scholarship aid for college from the Barrington Woman's club this season comes simultaneously with news of the appointment of a scholarship loan committee, headed by Mrs. Harold Grebe who has served as chairman for the past few years.

Her committee will be as follows: Mrs. W. D. Dotterer, Mrs. Elden Gleske, Mrs. R. W. Muir, Mrs. Everett Sproul, Mrs. Clayton Watkins, Mrs. Daniel Woodhead, Mrs. L. T. York and Mrs. Orin Wold.

A meeting of the group will be held at Mrs. Grebe's home in the near future. Plans will be made for the annual scholarship loan sponsored by the club. The date of the party will be announced later.

Please Tell Directory Workers of Address Change, Is Request

With work nearing completion on the Lions directory, R. E. Willmering, chairman, has requested persons who have changed addresses since the census was taken in April to notify Dr. E. A. Kleinwachter to that effect.

He also requested those persons who were not contacted at the census-taking time to get in touch with Dr. Kleinwachter in order that their names may appear in the booklet.

Statistical material and advertising are being rapidly brought up to date and will soon be turned over to the Barrington Publishing Co. for printing. Mr. Willmering said. In order to expedite the work and prevent any omissions or errors, he has made the above requests.

Mrs. E. T. Schutt to Discuss "Roses" for Garden Club

The Village Garden Club of Barrington will hold its first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. E. A. Beerman, 303 Grove avenue, Monday, Sept. 12 at 2 p. m. Mrs. E. T. Schutt will speak on the subject of "Roses." The roll call will be answered with scrap books, made by members during the summer. Each will contain a record of flowers which bloomed in the owner's garden.

Valuable Prizes Will Be Awarded at Cooking School Sept. 22-23-24

Many valuable gifts, including several special grand prizes, will be awarded to guests of The Review and cooperating merchants at "Star in My Kitchen," motion picture cooking school to be shown at the Catlow theatre on the afternoons of September 22 to 24 inclusive.

A toast and jam hospitality set, valued at $15.49, with fair, colored pottery dishes and two-lice automatic toasters, will be given by The Review as a grand prize. A table or floor lamp will be another grand prize. Several other items of merchandise including packages of groceries, a gasoline grill, hardware items, etc., will be awarded at the movie.

Many Students Are Enrolled for Fall Terms at Colleges

At Least 44 Local Boys and Girls to Start Terms
This Fall

At least 44 young men and women from Barrington have enrolled in universities and colleges in many parts of the country, and some have already left for the opening of fall classes while others will leave within the next several weeks.

The number reported as attending a higher branch of learning this year is the same as in 1937 when 44 local persons also were registered. An increase in the list is expected soon, however, when several more make a definite decision on their college or university. Some others are contemplating night courses at branch colleges in Chicago and business schools.

Approval Given For Traffic Lights at Hwy. and Hough

Receive Notice From State;
Begin Preliminaries on $3500 Project

The Illinois division of highways has approved an application for a permit to install traffic lights at the intersection of Hough street and Northwest highway. A. C. Burand, village clerk, reported to village trustees at a meeting held Tuesday night. Following his report, a motion was made and approved, ordering the village engineer to prepare specifications and plans for the improvement.

As soon as the engineers have completed the above mentioned items, the clerk will call for bids for the work. It is possible that the project can be completed this year.

The village board also passed a resolution asking that the state department allocate $3500 to cover the cost of the work, which is expected to be less than the Main and Hough street job due to the fact there is less tunneling work necessary.

According to the letter received by Mr. Burand from Ernest Lieberman, chief engineer of the division of highways, the state department favors installation of traffic control signals, the same as used at Main and Hough.

The village board applied for permit about a month ago after Chief of Police E. W. Buede and his department had conducted a traffic count at the intersection for several days.

The information received Tuesday night is a forward step in the lengthy campaign conducted by the present village board and previous trustees to have the Hough street and Northwest highway crossing protected with signals.

Publish Assessment List; Deadline for Objections Sept. 15

The personal property assessment roll and real estate changes for the town of Cuba for the year 1938 are published in this issue of The Review. Any objections to the assessments in Cuba township should be heard by the board after review up to September 15. It was announced this week.

Objections to valuations fixed by assessors in 13 other towns have been heard by the board already. Cuba and Waukegan, Deerfield, Shields, and Libertyville are the five remaining towns.

Libertyville Firm Gets Paving Award

The Illinois highway division Saturday announced the award of a $164,000 contract to the Erie Bolander Construction Co. of Libertyville for paving 1.75 miles from the Cook-Lake county line road toward Lake Zurich on U. S. route 12.

This last award completes the paving contract work with the exception of the grade separation unit. Work has already been started on the strip by other two successful bidders, I. D. Linn Company of Springfield and the Central West Construction company.

Labor Day Program Attracts Many to Barrington Hills

BARRINGTON HILLS.—Barrington Hills Country club with its three-day activities was an interesting meeting place last weekend. The dinner-dance Saturday night attracted a large number of diners and dancers and Monday the two golf contests were popular.

The prizes in the women's putting and approaching contest went to Mrs. Leslie Hanson, first, Mrs. Warren McCracken, second, and Mrs. George Dot, third.

Orville Caesar was winner in the fruits of labor contest.

Given Favorable Notice

The Garden club of Barrington was given a nice bit of publicity in the metropolitan section of last Sunday's Chicago Tribune. It was the last of a series of articles written by Juanita Day setting forth the various projects of suburban garden clubs.

Mrs. Robert Work, the president of the Garden Club of Barrington, gave the interview and emphasized the point that we are a community of estate and farm gardens, and hence offer an entirely different problem in gardening from city and north shore areas.

Quoting from Mrs. Work: "Barrington is a rural, rather than a suburban community."

The article set forth the various civic and estate plantings done by the club and stressed the interest in preserving wild life on the various estates. The club is near the close of its 13th year and is an important factor in our country life.

The September meeting was held last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Buckley. Marshall Clark of Dundee gave the talk of the afternoon, his subject being "Soil Conservation."

Mrs. Robert Work is to be one of the judges of the flower show given Thursday by the garden department of the Beverly Woman's club.

Enter Horse Show

The Wayne horse show put on by the Dunham Woods Riding club is scheduled for next Sunday. A number of Barrington riding enthusiasts have made entries and also asked for parking space around the ring. Among those making entries are: Miss Virginia Cardwell, Mrs. deKoven Bowen and Hope Casselberry, daughter of Mrs. Edgerton Throckmorton.

Persons

The Lloyd Hixons entertained a large group of friends at a cocktail party preceding the dinner-dance of last Saturday night at the club. Miss Sally Hallberg was hostess Sunday afternoon and evening to a number of the younger group. A picnic supper was served.

Misses June and Edith Work were at home for the holiday weekend and Robert Work Jr. was on a fishing trip to Spooner, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Steinbaugh, who had been visiting at the Fred A. Record home, left for Pontiac, Mich., last Sunday.

Now that evenings are cool, have you thought about having "the crowd" in for buffet supper and a few hands of bridge? We suggest carrying over for your main dish, a fresh fruit salad, minted iced tea, fruitade or coffee, hot rolls, fresh currant jelly and gingerbread topped with whipped cream.

You may like to have the following recipe:

CURRIED RICE
1 lb. pork, ground.
1 lb. veal or beef, ground.
2 onions.
1 cup uncooked rice.
2 cans tomato soup.
1 tablespoon curry.
1 tablespoon almonds.

Boil rice. Brown onions and meat. Add other ingredients. Bake over 15 minutes in covered casserole about 2 hrs. Remove cover for last 15 minutes to permit top to brown. Serve about ten.

MINTED ICED TEA
Pour fresh, hot tea over mint leaves. Let stand 3 minutes. Strain. Serve in tall glasses with cracked ice.

FRUITADE
Combine: 1/4 cup grapefruit juice, 1/4 cup pineapple juice, 1/4 cup orange juice, 2 tablespoons marshmallow cherry syrup. Chill. Serve with crushed ice.

DRESSY SANDWICHES
Moisten cream cheese with cream. Add chopped pimiento and a few drops almond extract. Spread on round slices of white bread.

RADISH SANDWICHES
Moisten finely chopped radishes with salad dressing. Season. Spread on whole wheat bread, cut in fancy shapes with cookie cutters.

WINDSOR SANDWICHES
Add 1/2 little drained, crushed pineapple to grape preserve. Spread on buttered white bread. Add second slice, spread with cottage cheese. Cut in oblongs.

FRUIT SALAD
Peel fresh pears, add bit of lemon juice to prevent discoloration. Fill halves with seedless green grapes. Arrange on beds of lettuce on large platter, using halves of fresh peaches for outside circle. Slightly sugared blueberries make a nice filling for the peaches. Garnish with water cream. At the last minute before serving, add French dressing.

Jerry Kohout Writes Account of Camping Trip of Honor Group

Life Scout Jerry Kohout of troop 211 of Barrington was one of the campers selected at Camp Ob-Da-To-Ta this summer to participate in the honor camper trip. His account of the trip follows:

"The scouts and officers who went on this trip were told to meet at Camp Ob-Da-To-Ta Thursday, Aug. 13, prepared to leave Friday morning. We were awakened at two o'clock on Friday morning, had our breakfast and left camp at four o'clock. There were 23 scouts going on this trip and 15 of them had to ride in the camp truck sitting under the duflie while five went with Chief Gaffney in his car more trouble. The closest town we found that we had a flat tire on one of the dual wheels of our truck. We had to wait for the garage to open and then we had to wait for the attendant to fix the flat. During this time we all went downtown and you could see scouts scattered all over the downtown of Hartford. We spent two hours there.

"From Hartford until we reached Camp John LeFebre, which was the name of the camp at which we were to stay, we didn't have any more trouble. The closest town to camp is Wabeno, which is about 15 miles away.

was interested in was when we were going to eat. The camp consisted of a mess hall, a bunk house, store house and an ice house.

"We didn't do much on Saturday but looked the camp over and went in swimming. On Sunday five scouts and myself went hiking through the woods west of camp and were gone for about three hours. On the way back from this hike we ran across a path and decided that we wanted to follow it the following day and find out where it would lead us. The next morning we followed this trail and after about two miles of hiking we came to the end of it. It ended by a shallow lake which was formed by springs.

On Tuesday we hiked to a hill and a tall pine tree on it. The top limbs were twisted so that they looked like a monkey wrench from which the hill received its name. On the trunk of this tree we found a lot of initials which were carved by scouts of other years. We added our initials to theirs and started back to camp which was about two miles distant. Most of the trees around camp were of second growth, due to lumbering and a forest fire.

"All the scouts had the use of the three canoes and two rowboats. A couple of the scouts captured the porcupines and let the rest of the scouts who wanted to take pictures do so, and then let the porcupines free with a few quills missing.

"On our way back from camp we made good time and reached Camp Ob-Da-To-Ta about four o'clock.

"I wish that every scout could be an honor camper so that he might be able to go on a trip like this."

(Signed) Jerry Kohout.

No Fatalities as Week-End Traffic Swamps Highways

One Near Drowning Sunday at Lake Zurich; Youth Is Hurt By Auto

Barrington and its vicinity escaped any fatal accidents over the Labor Day holiday that saw roads jammed to capacity with automobiles as thousands of persons took advantage of the three day holiday or vacationers were returning home for the opening of school. Traffic conditions were so good in the immediate vicinity that only two motor accidents of any consequence were reported.

Arthur Sheridan Jr., 15 years old, of 5140 Highland road, Chicago, was severely injured when he was thrown beneath a car which overturned on route 63 south of Barrington, Sunday afternoon. He suffered a crushed chest and other internal injuries.

Little could be learned of the incident, but it was reported the young man had been riding on the running board of the car and when the driver lost control of the machine, it went into the ditch, pinning him beneath it. State highway police were notified and upon investigation determined the car had been removed when they reached the scene.

A car owned and operated by John Perletti, 1621 W. 18th place, Oaklawn, was sidetracked by a car near the intersection of Rand and Dundee roads early Monday morning. The driver of the other car refused to give Perletti his name or address and left the scene before a squad from the Cook county sheriff's office arrived.

Perletti told police that he became fatigued while driving north on Rand road and had stopped the car to allow another member of his party to get in the driver's seat. Before the change could be made the other car approached from the rear and sidetracked Perletti's machine. No one was injured.

William Hrubec, 29 years old, of 1017 Cullerton avenue, was revived by inhalator squads from Lake Zurich and Wauconda after he had been seized with a cramp and sank beneath the surface while swimming at Breezy Point, Lake Zurich, Sunday afternoon. He was recovered by 15 men and other members of his picnic party. He was revived by the squads and allowed to return home an hour later.

Estimated crowds of 100,000 persons came to political rallies, Labor Day gatherings and other celebrations held in the Fox river valley during the holiday. At Charles capacity crowds were present at political rallies on Sunday and Monday and the labor parade at Elgin Monday was viewed by a large crowd.

Snore Cycles Mark Life of the Average Person

It has been established that there are snore cycles in the life of the average person, writes Margaret McEathern in Hygeia, the Health Magazine.

Infants snore commonly. Between the ages of ten and thirty years, snoring is rare. But after thirty it increases. This may be because at this age, people become a little careless about their physical well being. And snoring is a condition which is causing the snoring is corrected, it will increase with the passing of each ten years.

Generally, snoring indicates disturbances in the breathing apparatus, especially an obstruction in the nose that prevents the individual from sleeping with his mouth closed. The obstruction may be a result of polyp, tumor growth, enlarged turbinates, bony deformities, sinus infection or a deviated septum which encroaches on the air space of one nostril.

Strange but true, certain foods may cause a person to snore. Many men and women are sensitive to certain proteins. If they eat tomatoes, for instance, the mucous membranes of the nose have a tendency to accumulate secretions. Chronic inflammation of the nasal linings also may cause an enlargement of the tissues sufficient to obstruct the nose.

In children, snoring commonly is an indication of enlarged adenoids. According to conservative estimates, one out of every eight persons snores more or less regularly. No doubt every person snores occasionally, but the one out of eight is the person to look out for.

The Word Yard

The word yard comes to us from an Anglo-Saxon word "yrd," meaning a rod. In ancient times, says London Answers Magazine, the yard was regarded as equal to the circumference of a human body. Then Henry I decreed that it should be the length of his arm. This is interesting when you recall that most of us can measure out a yard of string, etc., by stretching it from our nose to the extreme of one arm fully extended.

WHAT'S GOING ON

WASHINGTON

(Courtesy The United States News)

A revived threat of imminent European war is suddenly thrusting itself into the calculations of the American government to complicate already tangled problems. The state department is advised by its representative board to discount heavily the prospect of an actual outbreak of fighting.

But the mere threat of trouble, centering around what Germany may have in mind for Czechoslovakia, is raising difficulties for a government now wrapped up in domestic affairs.

Once again frightened foreign capital is beginning to flood toward American shores. The dollar shows a persistent tendency to skyrocket under the demand of foreigners who find its ownership attractive. Treasury officials are forced to consider what might happen if trouble abroad should lead to quick confiscation by foreign governments of the holding of their citizens in the United States.

Here this nation's neutrality law enters the picture. This law as now designed—if actual war occurred—would close the door to exports of war materials and credits. Government trade experts say that tremendous repercussions could result from that situation. If the law really should be applied to important American customers. They say that export trade would quickly become demoralized and foreign governments would be forced to sell the holdings of their citizens to obtain gold which then could be taken out of the United States to be used to buy needed commodities elsewhere.

Jittery stock and commodity markets, these experts said, may reflect the speculative consideration of this possibility. What now is a gold rush to the United States could become, overnight, a gold rush out of the United States through the controls that foreign governments can exercise over the property of their citizens.

The newest, and most acute excitement, is reported to grow out of the present maneuvers of the German army and the feverish preparations that Germany has made of late to complete her defensive fortifications in the West and to prepare her avenues of access to Czechoslovakia. All official reports to this government are said to stress Germany's determination, within a short time, to remove the threat that an armed Czechoslovakia offers to her flank through the fortified Sudetic mountains.

Likewise, there is general agreement among the diplomats that Germany is determined to press with little delay for an outlet to the East that will open to her the farm lands of Hungary and the oil fields of Rumania. Raw material shortages are reported to be increasing the pressures within Germany near to the point of explosion.

These calculations lead the foreign experts of this and other governments to conclude that the German government may be prepared soon to risk the chance of war to gain control of the mountains in what once was Bohemia so that penetration to the East can proceed within a hostile threat. Where the argument lies is on the question of whether or not actual war would be provoked by new German aggression. The consensus of official opinion seems to be that it would not.

An era of abundance this year has returned to American farms

In the face of government controls over production.

Only once before in history have the farmers of the United States produced as much wheat as the $55,000,000 bushels they are producing this year. Added to the 200,000,000 bushels held from last year's crop the total supply is 400,000,000 bushels more than is needed for home use or export.

A prospective cotton crop of 12,000,000 bales—though under normal due to crop controls—has to be added to 13,500,000 bales held over from last year, giving the nation twice as much cotton as it needs for home use and for sale abroad under normal conditions.

The outlook is for a large crop of corn, amounting to 2,565,000,000 bushels, which must be added to 320,000,000 bushels held over from last year, to provide a total far above prospective needs, even in the face of a large export demand.

Ranges that were destroyed by drought in 1934 and again in 1935 again are green with bountiful supplies of grass. Herds of cattle and sheep are being fattened on the wheat and crop supplies that were cut to the danger point by drought created a shortage of grain, again are being built back to the levels where their very numbers created a problem for government.

Problems of scarcity are found to be giving way to new problems of abundance. The driver was struck by a rear fender and knocked to the pavement. Georgia Catherine Bobeng, 16 months old, was fatally injured Tuesday afternoon when she was struck by a milk truck in the yard at her home. The driver was driving out of the driveway at Bobeng's and failed to see the child dart across his path. The accident occurred two miles east of Union, Raymond, Miss.

Abundance, too, is bringing into action automatic controls of the new agricultural adjustment act.

Henry A. Wallace on August 8 strained a point to rule that the corn supply, although large, still could edge under the line without a referendum of corn growers on the question of establishing compulsory quotas that would require growers to store a definite portion of their crops. As a result of this decision the government will be forced to make price fixing loans on corn while farmers will be able to obtain these loans without submitting to rigid government control over marketing of their crop.

But in cotton and in tobacco the compulsory controls over marketing are to take effect. The result is that cotton growers this year must be able to flash a white card when selling their cotton if they want to escape a tax of two cents a pound on sales of cotton above a quota set by the government. Ninety per cent of the country's 2,500,000 farmers can flash this white card; the other ten per cent hold red cards which warn buyers to record their sales.

Three Children Die in Auto Accidents Three child deaths in two days from automobile accidents led local authorities to warn school children to be careful in crossing streets.

Leonard Cox, 8-year-old Aurora school boy, was killed when he stepped in front of an automobile while on his way to the first day of classes this semester. He was hit by a rear fender and knocked to the pavement.

Georgia Catherine Bobeng, 16 months old, was fatally injured Tuesday afternoon when she was struck by a milk truck in the yard at her home. Snake Lives on Eggs The egg-eating snake of South Africa is a harmless reptile and lives almost exclusively on eggs. It is pale brown in color with three rows of darker blotches. In describing the food habits of this species, scientifically known as Dasypeltis scabra, Raymond Ditmars, authority on reptiles, says: "Characterized by the presence of only a few teeth in the rear part of the jaw bones the food of the species is restricted almost entirely to eggs. To aid the snake in cutting through the shell is an ingenious development in the throat. There are knife-like points extending into the esophagus that cut the egg as it passes into the throat. This snake can swallow an egg as large as a hen's even though its body is about the diameter of a person's finger. It grows to be a yard long. After the egg has been swallowed the shell is crushed and expelled from the mouth. Three eggs make a big meal and after that the egg-eater is likely to fall asleep for three weeks.

"How Criticism Feels"

By GEORGIA LOTT SELTER

"Mattie Alden in tears!" cried Grandma Graham in consternation.

"Whatever can be the trouble?"

"Nothing serious, Mother," responded Mrs. Alden with a quavering smile. "Nothing worse than hurt feelings—hurt pride, perhaps you would say. Any way it does hurt! I did not want to follow Mildred in to the club presidency for I am so unfamiliar with the work and Mildred is outstanding as a presiding officer, but I did my best and I think she might have come to me privately to point out my mistakes. We all have to learn!"

Grandma Graham listened sympathetically to the particulars of the case. "Yes," she agreed, "that would hurt! And now while we are on this painful subject of adverse criticism, will you let me speak to you of something else, my dear? Did it ever occur to you that, a great many times, little Jimmy must feel much as you do?"

"But surely I have to point out his failures," protested Mattie after a moment of astonishment.

"How else can he learn? And children are so heedless that one must emphasize each shortcoming so many times!"

"Yet you said yourself that we all have to learn. And did you ever think how very new it all must seem to Jimmy?" Probably he feels that he has done his best and yet Mother sees nothing but mistakes in his conduct; at least that is all she emphasizes. This soon as he came into the house he removed his rubbers in the back entry, hung his coat on its proper hook in the closet, then threw his cap on the living-room table and his books on theavenport."

"And I reproved him for his carelessness," mused Jimmy's mother. "Yet what else could I do?"

"Might you not have commented on the fact that Jimmy did not remember to remove his rubbers and hang up his coat? That would have been deserved praise, which would have made him very happy. Then, after I had gone, you could have reminded him pleasantly that he might have raised his standard still higher by putting his cap and books where they belonged. Think how cheerful and comfortable it would all have been. Whereas, when you scolded Jimmy, you did not like to do it. I certainly did not enjoy hearing it, and you have just realized by your own experience that adverse criticism, especially if repeated, can hurt cruelly, so we know that Jimmy was made miserable. And really the incident was hardly worth an unhappy five minutes for three people. Was it?"

"No, it wasn't."

"You see, no child likes reproof and if it is administered as constantly as his conduct seems to warrant, it is apt to do one of two things to him: It either affects him too deeply, making him stubborn or self-conscious, or he closes his ears in self-defense and it ceases to affect him at all. You spoke just now of the heedlessness of children. This is often merely a mental defense which the child enforces himself to ward off the unpleasantness that he is otherwise powerless to combat."

"I confess I have before thought how Jimmy might feel when I have as unparaphrased pointed out his shortcomings," said his mother. "All I thought of was that I wished to improve him!"

Perceptive Can Kill Bear Though it's unusual for a porcupine to kill larger animals, it's by no means rare. Bears have been laid low by the needle-like spines. A porcupine kills only to self-defense. When in danger, it erects its quills which are sometimes 10 inches long. The quills are not shot, but are so loosely attached they come free at the slightest touch, and barbed so that once imbedded in an enemy's flesh they can hardly be removed.

Star Ginger Rogers and Fairbanks Jr. in Week-End Bill

"Fast Company," Comedy Hit, Showing Friday and Saturday

Frank Morgan's plea for a romantic role has been answered. In "Port of Seven Seas," showing at the Catlow theatre this evening, he plays the part of Panisee, a powerful character role which not only gives him an opportunity for comedy and drama but makes him a central figure in a tender and unusual love story.

Romance and adventure are combined with hilarious results in "Fast Company," new mystery drama coming to the Catlow Friday and Saturday. Melvin Douglas, Florence Rice, Claire Dodd, Shepard Stradwick, Louis Calhern, Nat Pendleton and Douglas Dumbrille are featured in the cast of capable performers.

"Fast Company" is an unusual background for a mystery drama revealing the activities of racketeers who steal and duplicate rare volumes that are sold for enormous prices.

Exhibiting a cross-section of life never before presented on the screen, "Having a Wonderful Time," co-starring Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks Jr., depicts in interesting fashion all the heterogeneous group that collects at summer vacation camps with the one determined aim of enjoying a good time.

In addition to that of two stars, more than 50 speaking roles personify all types of vacationists who hurry to the mountains annually for a brief release. "Having a Wonderful Time" comes here Sunday and Monday.

Stuart Erwin probably is going to be a logical contender for Maxie Rosenbloom's pugilistic title one of these days.

Maxie, known throughout the boxing world for his penchant for striking his opponents with his open hand, had won the sobriquet, "Slapshot Maxie."

And Erwin, heading the featured cast in "Passport Husband," at the Catlow Tuesday, discovered that he is possessor of a rare technique.

Director James Tinling was on the set putting Stu and Edward Brophy through a scene in which the sad-faced comedian knocks out "tough guy" Brophy and then receives the unconscious gangster by slapping him.

"Make him take it easy," moaned the raspy voiced Brophy. "He didn't hurt you," replied Tinling. "I saw him pull the punch."

"Who's talking about the punch?" roared Brophy. "It's the slapping."

Double featured with "Passport Husband" on Tuesday is the latest "Hopalong Cassidy" Paramount picture, "Star 20 Justice," starring William Boyd, and featuring Russell Hayden, Georges Hayes and Pat O'Brien.

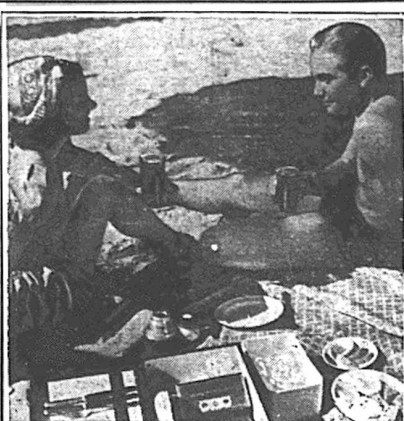

Wednesday and Thursday brings to the Catlow screen, "Till We Meet Again," with Warner Baxter, Peter Lorre and Marjorie Weaver.

Review's Cooking School Is Ready

person in the Catlow will have a "large as life, and twice as natural" view of each operation. There will be no "orchestra circle" at this entertainment, since the back row guests of The Review will have an equal chance to peer into the busy mixing bowl, watching the deft steps of measuring, creaming, sifting, and thorough mixing, not overlooking the final work of baking, roasting, French-frying, or frosting.

For this is no half-hearted demonstration. Each delicious dish will be completed and shown with such realism that there are sure to be hungry "ohs" and "ahs" from the audience. If any stray husbands get into the theatre, they are certain to ask, "When do we eat?"

Keeping up-to-the-minute on fresh discoveries to ease the home manager's burdens, is one of the

Because they have devoted years of training and study to home problems, these capable experts know how to help other housekeepers run their homes more smoothly, interestingly and economically. Under the glow of their enthusiasm and creative skill, a well-cooked meal becomes elevated from "just a job" to an artistic achievement, requiring skill and imagination.

Not only does this picture show new dishes, styles, and interesting ways to serve everyday meals and party feasts, but it demonstrates how to make intelligent use of the ingenious mechanical servants that take the guess work out of house work.

What about recipes? Naturally every guest of The Review will want to test these tantalizing recipes for menu monotony. Free recipe sheets will be distributed daily. And other things will be given away—valuable gifts that will find long and useful life in many a home.

Does your house run you? If so, why not accept the The Review's invitation to join the neighborhood cooking school party, starting September 22 in the Catlow theatre.

"PRUDENT INVESTMENT" THEORY

Testimony produced by the committee investigating the TVA tells of the authority purchasing 550 acres of phosphate lands in Tennessee for the sum of $680,000. The seller, a private corporation, had bought the lands a short time before for $125,000. A high official of the TVA told the congressional committee that he was not aware the seller was making such a handsome profit—but that he would have approved the purchase anyway, because the deposits were needed in the TVA's fertilizer program.

The New York World Telegram says: "Assuming that the phosphate lands are worth all TVA paid, still it seems altogether probable that the TVA might have made a better bargain if it had shopped around a little. Phosphate deposits, we understand, are rather widespread in that region, and even if this particular deposit was the most desirable, it seems not unlikely that the price might have been whittled down if the TVA board had taken just the customary let-the-buyer-beware caution of finding out what the 'prudent investment' value had been before the TVA entered the market as a well-heeled bidder."

"Anyhow, there was no reason for making a hurried purchase. President Roosevelt, who has taken quite an interest in conservation of phosphates and is himself something of an authority on the subject, sent a message to the last session of congress saying that the country possesses known deposits of that soil-enriching substance sufficient to last 1100 years, most of these deposits being owned by the government."

This isn't the first example of apparently gross waste of the taxpayers' money by the TVA. And there's nothing surprising in it to the student of the history of government-owned business. There seems to be something about government in business that makes efficiency and economy next to impossible. When you've the public treasury back of you, why haggle over a few hundred thousand dollars?

The Congressional committee would do well to look further into TVA expenditures and activities. After all, the people have been paying through the nose for this experiment in socialism—and they're entitled to know where their money went.

BROADEN THE TAX BASE

Every thinking citizen should support the drive that will be made in the next congress to broaden the tax base, which would awaken a larger number of people to what governmental finance means to them, by levying direct taxes, of nominal amounts, in the lower income brackets.

This drive can't be dismissed as an insidious plan by "rich reactionaries" to make the poor pay the national bills. Its principal sponsor is Senator LaFollette, who belongs to the left-wing block of the senate. And a great many congressmen, of radical as well as conservative tendencies, are behind it.

We have reached the point where "taxing the rich" is no solution to the fiscal problem. If the entire taxable incomes of all persons earning $25,000 a year or more were confiscated, the revenue derived would hardly make a dent in our swollen budget. At the present time, though relatively few seem to know it, the person of small and moderate means contributes the great bulk of all revenue, through hidden taxes that are part of the cost of every necessity as well as every luxury. Lowering the income tax base would both increase revenue and shock millions of people who now mistakenly think they are tax-free, into the realization that every man has a tremendous stake in the tax problem.

We have been dodging the issue too long. Those congressmen who, according to reports, are planning to do everything possible toward legalizing a broader tax base next session are performing a public service of the first importance.

FIRE TAKES 7600 LIVES

This year, if the past precedent holds, some 1500 people will be cremated in burning buildings. Six thousand more will die as the results of burns and scalds.

When an airplane crashes and a dozen people burn to death, the news makes international headlines and the world is horrified. Yet the public at large is callous to the fact that our annual total of deaths from fires is greater than the toll would be from 600 airplanes carrying to flaming doom 12 persons each.

Practically every one of those thousands of fire deaths could be easily prevented. Due to the carelessness of adults, children are among the principal sufferers. Unprotected stoves, matches left about, steam and hot water—these are major causes of death and suffering among the very young. Death takes no holiday when those things which may cause fires and scalds are within reach of a child's untaught, exploring fingers.

Equally dangerous, particularly in the case of adults, is the practice of starting stoves and furnaces with kerosene, gasoline or other inflammable liquids. You may get away with it a job for the undertaker—with you and possibly others as the objects of interest.

Next time you read of a spectacular disaster, reflect that something equally horrible can occur in your home. Think of this before you stir up a bulky fire with kerosene. Think of it again when the children are about. It is easy to prevent a fire—but it is impossible to ever make amends for the consequences of a fire that takes a life.

Electrical Storm Plays

Tricks at Antioch

The electrical storm that struck in Antioch a week ago caused considerable damage in addition to doing some unusual things. Carl Hughes, a farmer residing south-west of Antioch, has the prize tale. He stated that he had just completed threshing when the storm struck and to his amazement he saw the strawstack lifted by the wind and carried away. At the Somerville home in Antioch a large window was shattered as were windows in the Channel lake schoolhouse.
