Local Troops Trim Display Windows for Scout Week Program

Boy Scout Week is being observed by local troops with display windows trimmed with handicraft work. Troop 29 has a display in the Park Avenue Barber shop and Troop 21 has a display in the window of the Sasa Hardware store. A unique slogan is being used by Troop 21 in its display of safety: "Drive carefully and see our display next year." The exhibit is built around safety first in auto driving, showing hazardous intersections and crossings. An exhibit of auto accident pictures and data compiled during 1937 in the Elgin district of the state highway police was loaned to the troop by State Officer William Gallagher.

The week was opened with a church service held at the Salem church Sunday afternoon with a large number of persons present. Rev. Charles Drussel was speaker. Musical numbers concluded the program.

More Than 250 at Jurs-Meyer Program

More than 250 persons attended the annual Farm Day sponsored by Jurs-Meyer Implement Co. at the Catlow theatre Monday morning and afternoon, a check of attendance cards revealed.

The program for the day consisted of motion pictures on farm motive power, featuring the Massey Harris tractors and other farm implements. A luncheon was served at the company quarters present. Applebee street at noon and attendance prizes awarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams and son Virgil of McHenry and Mr. and Mr. O Erickson and son Blain of Cuba Township were guests of the Horas Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. B. Lageschulte of Chicago are spending several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Horas.

Mrs. Clarence Abigim and infant son Clarence, Jr. came home from the Sherman hospital in Elgin, Saturday.

Mrs. Ray Cannon came home from the University hospital, Chicago Thursday where she had been a surgical patient for two weeks. Mrs. Cannon is getting along nicely it is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. George Banks have moved from Washington D. C. to Barrington and will make their home with Mr. Banks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Banks, 543 Division street temporarily. Mr. Banks was transferred to a Chicago office. Mrs. Banks is with her parents at Ottumwa, Ill. for a short visit.

L. T. Smiley of the faculty at the Around Chicago Art Educators luncheon and program at the Sherman hotel, Chicago, Saturday, Olga Chabang, a noted French sculptress, did clay modelling and Frederic Misen, president of the Frederic Misen Academy of Arts, Chicago, did a portrait painting before the group of educators.

Mrs. Borothea Roselle, 141 W. Lake street, who has been ill and confined to bed for two weeks was able to sit up a little while Tuesday and is improving each day.

Charles Madden, 215 W. Main street, returned to school Monday after an absence of three weeks. Mrs. Eugene Grebe, 201 1/2 W. Main street, who was ill last week is better. She was threatened with pneumonia.

Mrs. Ida Hoffe of West Main street, is a surgical patient at the Sherman hospital, Elgin.

Herbert Bricker of the high school faculty and several members of the physics class saw the air show in Chicago Friday.

Mrs. S. Derrienger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Derrienger, 120 Cooldidge avenue, is quarantined with chicken pox.

Mrs. Stanley Corr is ill at her home, 125 Grand avenue, with a severe cold.

Mrs. Della Cady and her mother, Mrs. Emily Gleason are ill at their home, 215 E. Lincoln avenue.

Local Brevities

Mr. P. R. Dwyer, 129 Cooldidge avenue, attended the National Council of Methodist churches in Chicago Thursday and Friday and Mrs. Frank Kirchman went in for the program on Friday. The 20th anniversary of the beginning of the Methodist church was commemorated at this council. The general theme of the council as reflected in various speeches, answered the question, "Is Our Religion Adequate for Daily Living?" It was reported.

Mrs. Ida Hoffe underwent an operation at the Sherman hospital, Elgin, Monday morning.

School district No. 16 with Miss Jean Moorey the teacher, entertained at a school activity benefit party Saturday evening.

Charles and Gertrude Elsner, Carlin Langdale and William Saul of Barrington saw the Northwestern-Bradley basketball game at Patten gymnasium, Evanston, Saturday evening.
