

Lake-Cook to Hold Meeting January 10

The board of directors have announced that the 1938 annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lake-Cook stock company will be held at the Masonic temple at Des Plaines, at 10 a. m. on Saturday, Jan. 15.

This meeting will be of unusual interest to the farmers of Lake and Cook counties in that the largest dividend in the history of the company has been declared, namely $50,000. Besides this, interesting reports of the progress of the company will be made by the officers. These reports will be examined by the main speaker of the day, L. R. Marchant, general manager of the Illinois Farm Supply, who will talk on the achievements and results of farm businesses.

Free lunch will be served at noon and as an added feature, the services of the Four Hired Hands of WLS have been secured to entertain.

Odd Fellows Will Install Officers

Fred Bjoko will be installed as noble grand and Walter Witte as vice grand of the local I.O.O.F. at the lodge rooms this evening, Thursday.

Others to be installed are as follows: Jacob Goldman, right supporter to noble grand; Chester

Appointive committees are as follows: D. O. Weber, Elmer Baethke and Jacob Goldman, finances; Walter Witte, R. W. Baade, J. Goldman, D. O. Weber and Ray Bauman, entertainment; Sam Schaefer, Charles Schley and W. Gotschalk, delinquent committee; all elected officers and Charles Miller and George Hana, visiting committee.

R. W. Baade is press correspondent.

Eight Contagious Cases Quarantined

Eight cases of contagious diseases among children in Barrington were reported to R. W. Baade, health officer, this week. Four cases are measles and four are chicken pox.

Those quarantined for measles are as follows: Audrey Hloofon, K. Earl McGowan, Sally Hloofon, Dorothy Tucker. Chicken pox cases are as follows: Mary Jane Veath, Lane Kellam, Sally Har- graves and Katherine Hanson.

A. Little Suffers Concussion in Crash

Arthur Little, residing in Cuba township, received a slight concussion Monday afternoon when the car in which he and his wife and daughter were riding collided with a machine driven by Harry Young, 1117 Bellevue avenue, Elgin, at the intersection of route 52 and North Liberty street in Elgin. Both machines were overturned.

At first Mr. Little claimed not to be injured at all but when taken to police headquarters for treatment, he collapsed and was taken to the Sherman hospital. He was released late Wednesday. It was reported.

Little, accompanied by his wife Beale and daughter PECKY, was driving east on Summit street when his machine was struck by Young's car which was north-bound. The Barrington man claimed the other driver failed to stop at the intersection. Mrs. Little and daughter were cut and bruised but able to return home.

J. Plagge Elected Head of C. C. Class

John N. Plagge was elected president of the Christian Com- panionship class at its annual meeting, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Glecke, 124 Har- rison street, Tuesday evening.

The following officers were elected to serve with Mr. Plagge for the coming year: Wesley Nelson, vice president; Mrs. Erwin Stumpf, secretary; Mrs. Leola Hansen, treasurer.

After the short business session, Harold Homuth gave an interesting and educational talk on peace. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grebe assisted the Gleckes in serving refreshments during the social hour which concluded the program.

Bombing of Panay on Catlow Screen

The Catlow theatre is showing for the last time this evening, Thursday, a full-length news reel showing the graphic pictures of the bombing and sinking of the U.S.S. Panay by Japanese bombers at Shanghai recently.

The film was rushed to this country by the China Clipper and then taken to New York for editing. W. R. Catlow, manager of the theatre, has been fortunate in securing an early local release on this important incident.

The Catlow also announces a special feature performance on the stage at the Sunday show with the presentation of the Olive Swanson dancers. The group is composed of advance members of her dancing classes and performers reside both in Barrington and Elgin.

Local Brevities

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark and family, 432 N. Cook street, spent part of their holiday vacation with relatives at Alhambra and Brimfield. They returned to Barrington earlier than they had planned owing to the illness of Mr. Clark's wife who had contracted a throat infection.

George W. Arn, 203 Northwest highway, who has been ill with bronchitis the last three weeks is much improved.

Russell Breyer is ill at his home, 218 N. Cook street.

Miss Ruth Ahrens, 212 W. Russell street, saw Sonja Heine, world figure skating champion, at the Stadium in Chicago Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wagner and daughter Patricia moved from Washington to Barrington last week and are at home at 219 S. Cook street.

Among those who have been confined to their homes because of severe colds during the past week are Mrs. Elsie Schutt, Mrs. C. D. Herriman, Mrs. Donald Titterton, and Mrs. Earl Schwelm. Mrs. Charles Drussel is ill at her home, 407 Grove avenue. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Johnson of Racine, Miss Hilda Nelson and Sidney Block of Waukegan and Miss Edna Nelson of Bensenville were guests at the home of Dr. C. and Mrs. Cecil Kellam, 816 S. Hough street from Friday until Sunday evening.
