

Barrington Team Loses to State Hospital 5 to 1, Crystal Lake 10 to 5

Barrington Locals Suffer Twin Losses in Week-End Games

Lakers Erase Previous Loss By Trouncing Locals Sunday

Bowing before the two-hit hurling of two Elgin state hospital pitchers, the Barrington Baseball team lost a game at Elgin Saturday, 5 to 1.

Condill scored the locals only run in the first inning after being walked. He went to third on a double by Altenberg and scored on an error by the Elgin shortstop. Paulson socked a double in the sixth to terminate the Barrington hitting. The hospital internes slipped Howard Melners for eight hits, including a two-bagger. Melners struck out four and walked one while two Elgin pitchers struck out nine and walked two.

Another One
The locals suffered another beating when they dropped a 10 to 5 decision to Crystal Lake at Crystal Lake Sunday. This event up the series with Crystal Lake, Barrington getting a 1 to 0 victory over them earlier in the season.

Both teams went hitless until the third inning when Al Helman led off with a single for the locals. However, Bjornberg, next man up, hit into a double play and Eiters was also out. Harkins to Floton.

In their half of the third, two hits and two errors allowed Crystal Lake to score twice and they held a 2 to 0 lead going into the fourth. The locals had their big inning in the fourth, accounting for five hits and three runs. To begin the inning Paulson popped out to Harkins. Klopfenstein singled and went to second on an error by Harkins and J. Condill sacrificed, sending Klopfenstein to third. Buck Condill singled, scoring "Rogey" McCarthy singled, sending Condill to second and immediately afterward Baade also singled, scoring Condill and moving McCarthy to second. McCarthy scored on Helman's single and Baade went to third. The side was retired when Bjornberg hit a short fly ball to the first baseman.

Crystal Lake scored three more runs in their half of the fourth, one in the fifth, three in the sixth, and one in the eighth. Barrington got their other two runs in the eighth and ninth innings, respectively.

Eiters and Helman worked on the mound for Barrington, striking out one batter and walking four. Eiters and Helman shared pitching honors for the host team, striking out three of Behringer's men and walking two.

No game has been scheduled for next Sunday as yet, but Manager Bill Behringer stated that efforts are being made to get a game.

Von Schacht and Jim McMillen to Meet at Grayslake Friday

Friedrich Von Schacht, 6 foot 6 inch giant heavyweight wrestling champion of Germany, will get the chance he has been waiting for more than six months Friday night when he steps into the ring to wrestle Jim McMillen, local star and one of the greatest in the sport, in the main event of the all-star card at Peg's Grayslake arena, the Lake county center of sporting activities.

Some six months ago Von Schacht met McMillen before a capacity crowd in the White City arena in Chicago and after forty minutes of rough and tumble grappling the referee disqualified the giant German for becoming too vicious even for professional wrestling and awarded the match to McMillen.

Three weeks later the pair met in a return encounter and Von Schacht won the match and the right to face Bronko Nagurski for the world's championship in the Chicago Coliseum. Schacht pinned the champion, but the referee preferred to look the other way and awarded Bronko the match when Schacht tumbled out of the ring.

Since that time the German strongman has been gunning for another McMillen bout to get in line for the champion whom he is certain he can beat.

Supporting this great main go Ruffy Silverstein meets Hans Schauble in what should be a sensational return match. Schauble held the mighty Ruffy on even terms until he became entwined in the ropes and counted out by the referee so he will be given another chance this week.

In the semi-windup the famous Lord Patrick Landsdowne, Sol-folk, England's bid to title honors, will enter the ring accompanied by his two valets, Jeeves and Tweedles, to wrestle Al Williams, Fox Lake tattooed tough boy. The preliminary pits the Hawaiian, Jerry Meeker, against the clever Texan Bucky O'Neil.
