Tax Rebatement Has Little Benefit Here

Information on rebatement of 1934 real estate taxes in Barrington township and Cook county was forthcoming this week from R. G. Plagge, assessor for the town of Barrington, who pointed out the background of the movement and the actual cash benefit coming to local property owners. Mr. Plagge had received many calls in reference to the matter during the past week.

Those property owners in Barrington township who paid their 1934 real estate taxes under protest will not receive any large amount of money if they make application. The amount of rebate is 3c on each $100 assessed valuation, or an equivalent of 30c on each $1000 of assessed real estate valuation.

The only rebatement coming to Barrington township is on the county levy of 1934 which amounts to 1c and on the forest preserve levy which is 2c. However, if it were in Chicago, the saving would be material, for there the total rebate is 34c on each $100 valuation.

The size of the rebatement to Barrington township property owners hardly warrants the expenditure of time and effort and money in going to Chicago to make application at the state's attorney's office and then to file the claim in the treasurer's office, it was pointed out.

cooperation of both railroads. Village Trustees Rudolph Berg and John J. Carroll are making arrangements to secure the clinders.

Water Bouts Feature Palatine Firemen's Festival Aug. 25-28

Water fights, featuring the appearance of girls' teams from Wandoo, Long Grove, Arlington Heights and Palatine, will be a high point of entertainment at the Fall Festival at Palatine, which begins August 25 and continues through the 28th, according to R. Comfort, chief of the Palatine fire department, for which the event is sponsored.

Competition between men water fighting outfits, music by a German band, a farm show by 4-H club members, display booths, amusements and concessions are also numbered among the attractions. Mr. Comfort stated. An estimated attendance of more than 25,000 persons was at the festival last year and officials expect that figure to be exceeded this year.

Druggans Lose Fight in Higher Court on Forced Sale of Farm

Mrs. Elizabeth Druggan and son Terry will lose their 240-acre farm near Prairie View by way of the auction block unless they take an appeal from the appellate court decision Wednesday which affirmed a ruling of the circuit court.

The sale of the farm on a foreclosure proceeding was halted last spring when the Druggans appealed from the circuit court to the appellate court. The higher court Wednesday upheld the circuit court which ordered the sale of the property.

Mrs. Druggan must now file a petition for appeal in the supreme court or the farm may be sold by a special master to satisfy a $24,500 mortgage.

It was reported the car in which the Palatine youth was riding collided with the rear end of another machine that was traveling in the same direction.

With Bretzinger at the time were Clarence Schroeder and George Schinkowski, both of Palatine. They escaped with minor injuries and bruises.
