Fire Causes Large Loss to Arlington Heights Business

Several thousands of dollars in damage to machinery and paper stock was caused by a fire that broke out in the H. C. Paddock & Sons printing establishment in Ar-lington Heights Thanksgiving day afternoon. The fire, said to have been caused when embers from a rubbish fire burning at the rear of the building lit on the root, heavily damaged the roof and the second and third floors. Considerable printing stock was ruined by fire and smoke.

printing stock was ruined by fire and smoke.

The blare was extinguished by the Arlington Heights fire department, but broke out again later in the evening, doing moré damage.

Publication of the several Padock newspapers will proceed without interruption, according to Stuart Padock, publisher. The loss was covered by insurance.
