Funeral services for Ernest F. Schroeder, 48 years old, of Elgin, who died at the Sherman hospital Wednesday morning of injuries received at the Rinehimer Bros. Mfg. Schroeder of Freeport and Erich F. Schroeder of Crystal Lake; and five sisters, Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, Mrs. August C. ## John Bell Honored at Council Meeting

The importance of adequate trained leadership to carry out the program of scouting.

He stated that there will be better leaders among the citizens of the next generation because of the scout training which they are receiving now and that scouting is perpetual war against the forces which are seeking to drag a boy toward the wrong influence.

Charles S. Stewart paid tribute to the work of the scoutmasters, cubmasters, skippers and their asstants. The new handbook of senior scouting and the new "How Book of Cubbing" were presented to the leaders by their troop and pack committees.

Scout Executive Donald E. Kruger presented his annual message pointing out the progress which has been made during the year and making recommendations for the future.

The newly elected officers for 1939 were installed in an impressive ceremony by T. M. Whitson, past president of the council. The opening and closing ceremonies were conducted by the sea scouts of the Sea Scout Ship Jewel of Harrington with acting mate Jack Fletcher as leader. Invocation was pronounced by Rev. Philip T.
