

"Thrill of a Lifetime" at Catlow Sunday, Monday

"A Damsel in Distress" Is Coming Wednesday for Three Day Run

Two of Hollywood's Chinese actors are native-born Californians! They are Anna May Wong and Philip Ahn, who share love interest in "Daughter of Shanghai," the romance built around the alien smuggling racket, coming to the Catlow theatre Friday and Saturday. Both were born and educated in Los Angeles and while Ahn's father is a high official in the Korean government, the son can't even talk the language of his forefathers.

On the double feature bill on Friday and Saturday, with "Daughter of Shanghai," is the Tarzan-thrill of all-time, "Tarzan's Revenge," with the world's greatest athlete, Glenn Morris, and America's glamour girl, Eleanor Holm.

Those madmen of mirth, the Yacht Club Boys, join forces with two of the screen's most appealing young romantic couples, Johnny Downs and Eleanor Whitney and Betty Grable and Lief Erickson, to make the season's most gayest musical romance, "Thrill of a Lifetime," which comes to the Catlow Sunday for two days.

"Thrill of a Lifetime" is the merry tale of a bunch of happy-go-lucky youngsters in love, set against the background of a summer vacation camp.

Hilarious comedy is supplied by the Yacht Club Boys, aided and abetted by Judy Canova and Ben Blue, the screen's latest pair of zany—and a novelty specialty number is sung by gorgeous Dorothy Lamour.

If it is true the West casts a strange spell on visitors, it is equally true that no two people are effected exactly the same way. In "Partners of the Plains," which comes to the Catlow theatre Tuesday, Owen Gaze, a Londoner, comes to the L-D ranch full of scorn for everything about it, and stays to fall in love with William Boyd, while her Eastern dance, John Warburton, becomes Boyd's implacable enemy and even enters into a plot to kill him.

Boyd is seen once again as that hard-riding, square-jawed cowboy, "Hopalong Cassidy," in a Clarence E. Mulford story of old Arizona in its most lawless and untamed aspects.

Playing the double feature bill Tuesday is "Life Begins With Love," starring Jean Parker and Douglass Montgomery. Combining a P. G. Wodehouse story with a group of sparkling songs by the late George Gershwin and his brother Ira, Fred Astaire's new starring picture with Burns and Allen, for RKO Radio, "A Damsel in Distress," is said to be one of the year's funniest and most tuneful screen offerings. It comes to the Catlow theatre screen Wednesday for a three day engagement.

Joan Fontaine has the title role, and the Burns and Allen duo supply much of the comedy in this gay romance of a British girl and an American dancer.

Astaire reveals a novel group of dance routines, most conspicuous and sensational of which is his Drum Dance, in which he plays a dosen different percussion instruments while doing his steps in the midst of an orchestra stage.
